PROCEEDINGS

of the

1970 Pre-Primary Convention

of the

California Labor Council on Political Education

Wednesday, April 8, 1970

Larkin Hall Civic Auditorium San Francisco. California

Call to Order

The 1970 Pre-Primary Convention of the California Labor Council on Political Education was called to order at 10:22 a.m. in Larkin Hall, Civic Auditorium, Civic Center, San Francisco, California, by Albin J. Gruhn, President.

President Gruhn then led the delegates in the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

Invocation

President Gruhn presented Rabbi Saul E. White, of Congregation Beth Sholom, San Francisco, who delivered the following invocation:

"Our God and God of our fathers, since the beginning of time the children of man have aspired to create a just and peaceful society, and their vision and hope has always evaded them, for we are imperfect creatures and our better impulses have often been defeated by greed, selfishness, arrogance and love of power.

"We have come to a stage in history when we must realize that unless we work for justice in our gates, peace in our borders and for a world order founded on brotherhood we may vanish from the face of the earth. It is because of this grim realization that we ask Thy blessing upon our assembly; that we champion the cause of righteousness, peace and humaneness and elect to office men of integrity, men of widom and compassion so that man does not become obsolete and Thy world a desolation.

"We pray that there be no blood bath on the campuses of our universities, the cities and farms of our state and country.

"Bless us now and in the days to come. "Amen."

Welcome to Delegates and Visitors

President Gruhn briefly welcomed delegates and visitors to the Convention.

ADDRESS

Albin J. Gruhn President

President Gruhn then presented the following address to the Convention:

"This convention is the ultimate in the democratic process of the non-partisan political arm of the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO. From the local COPEs, the district COPEs and area COPEs and then through the Executive Council of the California Labor COPE come the recommendations which you will be acting on today.

"What we do here today, what we do to implement our actions between now and the primary election on June 2 and the November general election will have a tremendous impact upon the kind of California, the kind of nation and the kind of world we and the generations to come will live in.

"This may appear to be a broad generalization, but let's take a moment to look at it as it is.

"California is the most populous state in the Union.

"California is soon to have a larger number of congressmen than any other state in the Union—estimated to be forty-four. The makeup of the 1971 California Legislature will determine the redistricting of the congressional districts necessary for these six additional congressmen. Will the redistricting be such as to assure more conservative or more liberal congressmen from California?

"The make up of the 1971 California Legislature will also determine the type of legislation that is passed or killed in the next two years.

"Much is at stake in this election year. Never has there been a need for more unity among the ranks of organized labor. Our local communities, our state and our nation are faced with increasingly grave economic and social problems which are becoming aggravated and multiplied by the action and inaction of conservative and ultra-conservative government executives and lawmakers such as the President, our state's Governor, the senior United States Senator from California and others who have a similar philosophy.

"As free trade unionists in a free society we have a tremendous responsibility to continue our efforts to see to it that our representative government responds to the needs of all of the people and not just the favored few. This means full participation in our country's democratic system. The very heart of this democratic system is the election of our public officials. It affects the lives of every American, the laws that govern him, the taxes he pays, the services his government provides.

"There are extremists from the far left and the far right who would destroy our nation's democratic system of government and replace it with a totalitarian form of government. This would mean the end of free unions and a free society. We must never let that happen here. Every trade unionist must help to make our democratic system work by registering to vote, by knowing the candidates and the issues and by voting on election day and, in fact, by working at it every day of the year.

"As we enter into the deliberations and actions of our California Labor COPE Convention today, let us keep uppermost in our minds that we are delegated here as trade unionists; that the unachieved goals of the labor movement in our beloved country are many-such goals as the complete eradication of poverty; a job at fair wages and a decent place to live for all Americans; equal rights and equal opportunity for persons of every race, color and creed; a full education for every youth with no ceiling except his own ability; adequate security against the hazards of illness and old age; an environment free from pollution and a world to live in where peace and freedom prevail.

"Let these goals give added zeal to our dedication of purpose and our determination to bring about election victories in 1970 that will be meaningful to labor and to all of the people.

"Thank you very much."

ADDRESS

Al Barkan National Director AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education

At this time, President Gruhn introduced Al Barkan, National Director of the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education, who addressed the delegation.

"Those of you who are familiar with my reputation for long-windedness, I hasten to reassure you that I am going to be unusually brief.

"We are going to have a COPE Area Conference in San Francisco on May 2. I hope all of you will be there. And I will save my extended remarks on the '70 campaign for that meeting.

"However, let me spend my time by pleading with you leaders of California labor to make your endorsements meaningful by beefing up our operation in two particular areas.

"I was happy, at a breakfast meeting this morning with the Laborers, to hear Secretary-Treasurer O'Sullivan refer to these two weaknesses. The first is in the area of registration.

"Now you may not like what I am about to say, but the facts are very clear. A better registration job amongst labor in Mississippi and Alabama has been done than here in California—a statewide voter identification program where over a million names provided by the international unions have been checked. The job isn't finished, but Fred Smith told me this morning that more than half of our membership in California are not registered.

"Now you don't have the excuse that our organizations have elsewhere.

"States like Ohio and Pennsylvania, where registration is limited to 9:00 to 4:00 Monday through Friday, have a better registration percentage than you.

"You have got the best, the easiest registration laws in the country. And maybe that is your problem. Registration isn't a challenge as it is in Texas, where if you want to vote in Texas in 1970 the only time you could register is in November of '69, December of '69, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's. And registration in Texas ended January the 30th. And Hank Brown reports, with that barrier, over 75 percent of our membership in Texas is registered.

"So Al, Secretary-Treasurer Henning, I hope we just don't go through the motions of endorsing candidates and we then try to fight the battle of electing them with one hand tied behind our backs.

"Now we in National COPE are going to do everything we can to help you in this registration effort. We got, from the in-ternational unions, the list of names. We provided financial help for the registration checking. Just as soon as the job is finished we are going to add a new element to the registration equation in California and elsewhere. As soon as you send me the list of your non-registered members by local union, President Meany is prepared to write to every international union with a list of their non-registered members by local union and ask the unions to accept the major responsibility for registering their non-registered members. This approach has never been made before.

"We certainly want the state and the local central bodies involved in this registration effort helping the local unions. But we are going to put the primary responsibility on each international and local union to register their non-registered members.

"Tomorrow morning LaMar Gulbransen and myself are going to be meeting with your state leaders, where we hope to hammer out a registration program.

"The other thing I want to talk to you about is equally important.

"You know, years ago our opposition used to steal elections. Now they find it much easier to buy the election. You saw evidence of that in the 1968 presidential campaign. And if there was ever one that was bought, it was that one. Twenty-eight million dollars in the Nixon campaign. For Humphrey they had to go out and borrow money in order to have him make a belated appearance before the electorate on TV. Some day, somehow, this country is going to have to face up to the increasing problem of political financing, where if you're not a millionaire and you don't have the support of millionaires you are almost blocked out from presenting your point of view.

"We are going to have to go to the English system, where there is a severe limitation, strictly enforced, on the amount of money a candidate can spend.

"I have been in thirty-four states in the last couple of months. I have interrupted this Coast-to-Coast visit with our leadership in each state. I met with our leaders in North and South Dakota, in Minnesota. I was in Minneapolis yesterday. I leave tomorrow night to go to Kansas City, where we will be meeting with our Missouri and our Nebraska, our Kansas, our Oklahoma delegates. And we go on to Denver, we will go to Portland and we will wind up on May 2 in San Francisco.

"But the disturbing thing to me is: In these thirty-four states there is all kinds of evidence that our opposition is getting ready to buy the 1970 elections.

"In Washington two weeks ago President Nixon addressed a $1,000-a-plate fund-raising dinner for the Republican Congressional and Senatorial Campaign Committee. They had eighteen hundred diners at $1,000 apiece. They grossed $1,800,000 in one night.

"Agnew reports and boasts that in five separate fund-raising state meetings that he has attended he has already raised a million six hundred thousand dollars.

"They are talking about the Republican Congressional Committee's having $25,000,000 to throw into California and other states to take the election. And I'm afraid, unless we do a better job of fund-raising than we have done in the past, some of our candidates are going to be lost. And what pains me, Al, is that the money is there.

"I went to this breakfast, as I told you, of the Laborers. And they reported their COPE collections, their Labor Political League collections, so far as breaking records. Why? They are taking the trouble to set up the machinery to approach every member and ask them for a contribution.

"I don't care how small your membership is. You can't tell me that the average member, if he is properly approached and asked if he is willing to contribute a buck to get rid of Murphy or get rid of Reagan, that he won't give it. But we have got local unions—and I'll betcha that some of them are right here—where not a single solitary dollar has been raised. And it is not the fault of the members. Community Chest and Red Cross drives prove that our members are amongst the most generous in the population. Why do they contribute to Red Cross and Community Chest? Because the machinery is set up in the local unions so that the members are approached.

"And I plead with you, in addition to registration, we do this political financing job. Set up the machinery, ask every local member for that COPE buck. Not a single penny of it goes to pay anybody's salary or expenses. We are supported out of the general funds of the AFL-CIO. Every dollar that is raised will be used, sent like silver bullets back to every state on behalf of COPE-endorsed candidates.

"I conclude by pleading with California labor. You have got a reputation in this country in labor for having some of the best contracts; the best working conditions; a militant, forward, progressive labor movement. I plead with you in this year of 1970 as we face an organizational crisis. Our enemies are at our jugular veins with union-busting, union-smashing legislative proposals that will make Taft-Hartley and Landrum-Griffin look like prolabor laws. I plead with you today. Forge a political program. Go back to your local unions, your central bodies, execute and support and develop and promote that program in such a way that when labor historians look back at the job you did in the 1970 elections they will be saying: '1970 was California labor's finest hour.'

"Good luck, God bless you. And on to victory!"

Introduction of John F. Henning Executive Secretary-Treasurer

John F. Henning, Executive Secretary-Treasurer, was then introduced by President Gruhn for the purpose of announcing the Convention Committees.

"At this time, as you know, this is the first convention that we have had of our state organization since we have had a change in one of the top offices of the Federation.

"We all very much regret the fact that Secretary-Treasurer Tom Pitts found it necessary to retire because of ill health. And we wish him 'God-speed' and a well earned retirement that he can enjoy in the coming years. He gave a lot of himself to this trade union movement under very trying circumstances, as many of you know.

"And upon his retirement we were very fortunate to have in the state a man who I am proud to have as a team member heading up this Federation, a guy who I have known for many years. He came into this Federation as research director, and assistant to Neil Haggerty, our former Secretary-Treasurer. I know of his dedication to the labor movement and to the social principles which we have long fought for. He is a guy who I also know to be pretty rough on a basketball court, because I have been in competition with him. And I know that with this sort of team in the State of California, with our new Secretary-Treasurer, that we will do everything possible to continue to give you the leadership that will build a stronger and more effective labor movement so that we can accomplish the victories necessary in order to get this state moving ahead again as it should as the number one state.

"So it is a pleasure for me to present to you for the purpose of announcing the Convention Committees that have been appointed, a good and dear friend of mine, and I know a good and dear friend of yours, our new Secretary-Treasurer, Jack Henning."

"We have accomplished for the liberal elements of this country, one of the greatest victories. The vote on the Carswell nomination was 51 to 45, against.

"This is a great victory for the people of the United States. Let's go on from here and do the rest of the job."

President Gruhn then discharged the Committee with his thanks.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL AND ENDORSEMENTS BY THE CONVENTION

John F. Henning Executive Secretary-Treasurer

At this time Chairman Gruhn called upon Executive Secretary-Treasurer John F. Henning to present the report and endorsement recommendations of the Executive Council, who addressed the Convention as follows:

"The Executive Council of the California Labor Council on Political Education, together with the duly appointed Advisory Committee, met in the Del Webb Towne-House on Monday, April 6, 1970 to interview candidates for statewide offices in the primary elections of June 2.

"On the same day, April 6, the Advisory Committee made its recommendations to the Executive Council.

"The Executive Council then met in separate session April 6 and 7, 1970 and made the following recommendations to the Convention.

United States Senate

The Executive Council recommended:

Democratic: George E. Brown, Jr.

John V. Tunney

Republican: No endorsement

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning

then moved adoption of the Executive Council recommendation, and the motion was seconded.

Warren Greer, Marine and Shipbuilding Workers, Local 9, San Pedro; Harry Bloch, Los Angeles County COPE, Los Angeles; and Henry Harr, Painters No. 741, Martinez, spoke in support of George E. Brown, Jr. (D).

Scott Franklin, Los Angeles County Fire Fighters No. 1014, Los Angeles, spoke in favor of Kenneth Hahn (D), Los Angeles County Supervisor, and asked for an "Open" recommendation.

Con O'Shea, Central Labor Council, Riverside; R. R. Richardson, San Diego County COPE, San Diego; Floyd O. Melton, Central Labor Council, Riverside; and W. L. Fillippini, Building and Construction Trades Council, Santa Barbara, spoke in support of the Executive Council's recommendation.

At this point, Delegate Irvin P. Mazzei, Rubber Wkrs. No. 678, Los Angeles, rose to move the previous question.

His motion was seconded and carried.

DUAL ENDORSEMENT FOR U.S. SENATE

John F. Henning Executive Secretary-Treasurer

Chairman Gruhn then called upon Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning for his remarks regarding the Executive Council's dual endorsement for U.S. Senate.

"Mr. President, delegates: This political council was not established for the purpose of deciding contests between two liberals seeking the same political office. It was formed for the purpose of electing liberals to office in California and in Washington.

"Now the situation we have here is one in which both men have the credentials of liberalism. And there is nothing new about Tunney's liberalism. It began with his coming to Congress in 1965. He has a record of better than ninety percent good by the standards of the AFL-CIO ratings.

"We all know George Brown's magnificent liberalism in the history of his work in the legislature in California and in the Congress of the United States.

"We were not formed, again, to decide contests between liberals, to spend our energy, to spend our sense of solidarity, to spend our money in deciding a struggle that in the institutional sense is a party fight between two very good liberal candidates.

"Now it can be asked: "Well then, what is the purpose of a Pre-Primary Convention if we are not to decide such contests?"

"The purpose of a Pre-Primary Convention is to give advice and counsel to the membership and to the people of this state on a man's liberal identification, on his liberal status. And, upon endorsement, to give whatever financial means are necessary so that he can assure himself of identification before the people.

"But this is a primary, this is a preliminary. This is not the great struggle. And we need only consider the fiscal aspects of this. Let's suppose we have a local COPE or a council that has a certain amount of money allotted for the U.S. Senate campaign, and let's say for the sake of argument it is $10,000. That is all they are going to have in the course of this year. What are they going to do? Spend $5,000 in the primary defeating the other liberal candidate or are they going to spend $8,000 in the primary defeating the other liberal candidate? What have they got left for the struggle against Murphy, against Reagan and against the Tory forces for reaction in this state?

"It is just not common sense to spend ourselves financially or in terms of unity in a primary struggle between two men who meet the criteria of liberalism by our standards.

"And there is another aspect to this. By this dual endorsement we preserve what I think is essential to any labor or political vehicle. We preserve that sense of brotherhood that allows for a difference, that allows for diversity. It would be the worst-of-all political crimes to impose a rigid discipline or attempt to impose a rigid discipline on this organization or on any other trade union organization on the question of political action in the primaries.

"It will be said that we need solidarity.

"That's right. But we don't impose conformity in the primary. We need solidarity, we need unity. But we need it in the finals against the common foe, not in a struggle between liberals seeking the same office."

The motion to adopt the Executive Council's recommendation for the United States Senate was carried.

Governor

The Executive Council recommended:

Democratic: Jess Unruh

Republican: No endorsement

On motion of Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning, duly seconded and carried, the recommendation was approved.

Lieutenant Governor

The Executive Council recommended:

Democratic: Alfred E. Alquist Republican: No endorsement

The motion to accept the Executive Council's recommendation was seconded and carried by the Convention.

Secretary of State

The Executive Council recommended:

Democratic: Edmund G. Brown, Jr.

Republican: No endorsement

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning moved adoption of the Executive Council's recommendation, and the motion was duly seconded.

Delegate Victor J. Lazzaro, Retail Clerks No. 428, San Jose, rose to move to amend the motion. Chairman Gruhn, however, indicated that such 3 motion was out of order and cited Article XI, Section 4, p.16 of the California Labor COPE Constitution:

"No recommendation may be presented from the floor of the convention for the endorsement of any candidate unless the recommended candidate for such office has already been rejected by the convention action."

Delegate Lazzaro then chose to speak on the motion and spoke in support of Assemblyman George Milias, Jr. (R) for the office of Secretary of State.

The motion to accept the Executive Council's recommendation was passed by the Convention.

State Controller

The Executive Council recommended:

Democratic: Herman SillasRepublican: Houston Flournoy

The motion to accept the Executive Council recommendation was seconded and carried.

State Treasurer

The Executive Council recommended:

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning moved adoption of the Executive Council's recommendation, and the motion was seconded.

Delegate James E. Daniels, Marine and Shipbuilding Workers No. 9, San Pedro, spoke in opposition to the recommendation and called for a "Dual" endorsement in the office of State Treasurer and submitted the name of Thomas C. Rupert (D) for the delegates' consideration.

Executive Secretary-Treasurer H e nning's motion to accept the Executive Council's recommendation was carried.

Attorney General

The Executive Council recommended: Democratic: Charles A. O'Brien Republican: Evelle J. Younger

The motion to accept the recommendation was seconded and carried.

Superintendent of Public Instruction

The Executive Council recommended:
Julian Nava
Wilson Riles

The motion to accept the recommendation was seconded and carried.

Endorsement Procedure

Chairman Gruhn presented the following procedure to be used for the Congressional, State Senate and State Assembly endorsements. Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning would read the Executive Council's recommended endorsements. If a question should arise concerning any recommendation, the delegate objecting should ask for recognition by the Chair and then request that the recommended endorsement in question be set aside to be taken up individually after the other recommended endorsements were acted upon. There being no objection, this procedure was subsequently followed.

At this point, William McCabe, Bartenders No. 41, San Francisco, rose to pose a question.

Delegate McCabe wished to move that the recommendations for the City and County of San Francisco be re-referred to the Executive Council, giving it full power to act after the local COPE had had an opportunity to act and make its recommendations to the State COPE.

Chairman Gruhn ruled that this motion was out of order, explaining that the Executive Council's endorsement recommendations would be read, and when coming to the offices in San Francisco, Delegate McCabe should then request that the recommended endorsements in question be set aside to be taken up after the balance of the recommendations have been acted upon.

For further clarification, Joseph Belardi, Cooks No. 44, San Francisco, pointed out that, in any case, it was his understanding that San Francisco COPE would not meet to make endorsements for the primary election.

With the foregoing discussion concluded. Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning continued with the recommendations of the Executive Council.

"Mr. President, delegates, the Executive Council of the California Labor Council on Political Education met in the Del Webb TowneHouse Hotel, San Francisco, Tuesday, April 7, 1970 to consider local COPE recommendations for election to the United States Congress, State Senate, State Assembly and the State Board of Equalization.

"The following recommendations are accordingly submitted by the Executive Council for district offices."

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning then moved that the recommendations for the 38 Congressional Districts be adopted as a whole. The motion was seconded and carried.

Message from Joseph L. Alioto Mayor, City of San Francisco

At this point, Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning read the delegation a message received from the Mayor of San Francisco, Joseph L. Alioto.

"Urgent business at Washington, D.C. involving construction and employment possibilities in our city prevents my being present to welcome the COPE delegation to San Francisco.

"These times are of change and challenge when extremes from both sides pose threats to the exercise of democratic government, and the active labor movement is now more than ever before a vital force in preserving the rights of society and individuals and in keeping the path of progress open to all. I am sure that your deliberations will result in policies which help to achieve these goals.

"With all good wishes, I am

"Sincerely,

"Joseph L. Alioto, Mayor".

President Gruhn expressed his appreciation for Mayor Alioto's message and regretted that the Mayor was unable to attend the Convention.

As requested, the endorsements for Districts 8, 12 and 20 were set aside for the moment.

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning moved that, with the exception of Districts 8, 12 and 20, the Executive Council's recommendations be adopted.

The motion was seconded and carried.

District No. 8

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning moved that the Council's recommendation for District No. 8 be adopted. The motion was duly seconded.

Rufus M. Day, Typographical No. 36, Oakland, opposed the motion, objecting to the recommendation of Lewis F. Sherman (R).

Richard K. Groulx, Alameda County Central Labor Council, Oakland, pointing out that the Alameda County COPE was unanimous on the support of Lewis F. Sherman (R), spoke in support of the Executive Council's recommendation.

The motion to accept the Council's recommendation was passed.

District No. 12

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning moved adoption of the Executive Council's recommendation for District No. 12. The motion was duly seconded.

Delegate Robert O. Delzell, San Mateo County COPE, San Mateo, indicated that he had neglected to notify the California Labor COPE Executive Council that San Mateo COPE had not endorsed Carl A. Britschgi (R). Delegate Delzell then asked that the delegation reject the Executive Council's recommendation and later endorse only Arlen F. Gregorio, Democrat, in the 12th Senatorial District.

Robert Bost, Air Transport Empls. No. 1781, San Bruno; Stanley M. Smith, Glaziers and Glass Workers No. 718, San Francisco; and James B. Gordon, Jr., Communications Workers No. 9412, Hayward, also spoke in opposition to the Executive Council's recommendation.

Thomas A. Small, Bartenders and Culinary Workers No. 340, San Mateo, supported the Council's recommendation with the following remarks:

"I am a member of the Executive Council of COPE.

"When we received the recommendation from the San Mateo County COPE, as in other areas, it made no reference whatsoever to the Republican party in this particular race.

"Ike Britschgi is a member of the Milk Wagon Drivers Union in San Francisco, and has been for the last thirty years. And when he operated the Occidental Dairy in Redwood City he hired nothing but union help. He has been in the Assembly for the past (I think) eighteen years. The latest record he had up there was eleven votes in favor of labor and four against.

". . . It is my plea to you to allow the recommendation of the Executive Council to stand and let Ike Britschgi be endorsed on the Republican ticket.

"Thank you."

Earl W. Honerlah, Carpenters and Joiners No. 162, San Mateo; Ed Turner, Marine Cooks and Stewards, San Francisco; and Leon Olson, Typographical No. 21, San Francisco, also spoke in support of the Executive Council's recommendation.

The motion to accept the Council's recommendation was passed.

District No. 20

Adoption of the Executive Council's recommendation for District No. 20 was moved by Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning. The motion was duly seconded.

Robert J. Mitton, San Bernardino County Central Labor Council, opposed the Executive Council's recommendation on the basis that due to an oversight on the part of the local and bi-county COPEs, an "Open" recommendation resulted in the Democratic Party, when in actuality, these COPE bodies wished to endorse Nancy E. Smith, Democrat and "No Endorsement", Republican.

Delegate Mitton then asked that the delegation reject the Executive Council's recommendation so that the Convention could consider the endorsement of Nancy E. Smith (D).

In view of this new information, there was no objection from Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning to rejecting this recommendation. The motion to accept the Council's recommendation was defeated.

Delegate Mitton then moved the endorsement of Nancy E. Smith, Democrat and "No Endorsement", Republican

The motion was seconded and carried.

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning then moved adoption of the Executive Council recommendations for State Senate as a whole, as amended.

The motion was seconded and carried.

By request, the recommendations for Districts 1, 27 and 34 were temporarily

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning moved that, with the exceptions of Districts 1, 27 and 34, the Council's recommendations for the State Assembly be adopted.

The motion, duly seconded, was passed.

District No. 1

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning next moved adoption of the Council's recommendation for District No. 1.

Robert E. Koenig, Five Counties COPE, Redding; Clarice Rabe, Culinary Workers

No. 470, Redding; Virginia L. Davis, Butte and Glenn Counties Central Labor Council, Oroville; and Roy E. Benner, Butchers No. 352, Redding spoke in opposition to the Executive Council's recommendation.

Leonard Cahill, Lumber and Sawmill Workers Redwood District Council, Eureka; Dan Mundy, Los Angeles County COPE; Steve Edney, Cannery and Industrial Workers of the Pacific, Terminal Island; and Harry Finks, Waiters and Waitresses No. 561, Sacramento, spoke in support of the Executive Council's recommendation.

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning also spoke in support of the Executive Council's recommendation and, for clarification, explained the circumstances which had confronted the Council.

"Mr. President and delegates, because of a certain conflict here in recommendations from the local area I believe it proper to speak on this.

"The Five County Central Labor Council went on record with us for the endorsement of this office. And I will read the wire:

"'FOLLOWING ARE THE ENDORSE-MENTS FROM THE FIVE COUNTIES CENTRAL LABOR COUNCIL, REDDING, CALIFORNIA, FOR THE STATE ASSEM-BLY SEAT BETWEEN DEMOCRATS PAULINE DAVIS AND PATRICK LA-POINTE: OPEN ENDORSEMENT.'

"Now, we also received at our Executive Council session a communication sent to us by the 1st Congressional District COPE, which recommended endorsement of Pauline Davis.

"Because there was no Area COPE session held to determine and resolve this conflict, the Executive Council had the authority by the Constitution to make the recommendation...

"So I speak for the Executive Council recommendation."

The motion to accept the Executive Council's recommendation for District No. 1 was passed.

District No. 27

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning then moved that the Executive Council's recommendation of Leo J. Ryan (D) and Frank Spaderella (R) for District No. 27 be adopted. The motion was seconded.

Robert O. Delzell, San Mateo County COPE, San Mateo; Robert Bost, Air Transport Empls. No. 1781, San Bruno; J. M. Van Houten, Communications Workers District 9, San Francisco; John Zapian, Electrical Workers No. 1245, Oakland; Stanley M. Smith, Glaziers and Glass Workers No. 718, San Francisco; and Evelyn P. Mitchell, Communications Workers No. 9430, San Mateo, spoke in opposition to the Executive Council's recommendation.

T. A. Small, Bartenders and Culinary Workers No. 340, San Mateo; Ed Turner, Marine Cooks and Stewards, San Francisco; and Alfred A. Figone, Bay Counties District Council of Carpenters, San Francisco, spoke in support of the Executive Council's recommendation.

In commenting on the Council's recommendation, Delegate Robert O. Delzell explained the action of his local COPE:

"The delegates of San Mateo County voted to support or recommend endorsement of Leo J. Ryan . . ."

After discussion, Delegate Delzell added:

"... And I also would like to say that the recommendation of the San Mateo COPE has been overturned in effect. We didn't think it was necessary to turn in a recommenation for every Republican that we did not endorse. We turned in a recommendation as to those people we did endorse, and feit that that was sufficient."

In explaining the action of the Executive Council, Delegate T. A. Small stated:

"We didn't upset any recommendation from the local COPE. The local COPE failed to recommend or mention anybody on the Republican side."

Division of the House

When Chairman Gruhn put the motion to the floor, members of the delegation called for a division of the house. The Sergeants-at-Arms counted those delegates in favor of the motion, and those opposed. Chairman Gruhn then announced the results: 144 "yes" and 126 "no." Since the "yes" vote fell short of the required 60 percent, the motion lost.

Delegate Robert O. Delzell moved to endorse Leo J. Ryan, Democrat, and "No Endorsement" in the Republican race.

Division of the House

Several members of the delegation called for a division of the house on Delegate Delzell's motion.

The results of the vote were announced by Chairman Gruhn: 162 "yes" and 60 "no." The motion carried by the necessary margin.

District No. 34

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning moved adoption of the Executive Council's recommendation for the 34th Assembly District: "Open," Democrat and "No Endorsement," Republican. The motion was seconded.

Russel S. Hansen, Monterey Central Labor Council, Monterey, asked that the Council's recommendation be voted down so that the delegates from the 34th Assembly District would be able to make a new motion for a recommendation of "Open" in both the Democratic and Republican positions.

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning indicated that he had no objection to Delegate Hansen's request. Chairman Gruhn then put the motion.

The motion lost.

Delegate Hansen then moved for "Open" recommendations in both the Democratic and Republican Parties. The motion was seconded and carried by the delegation.

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning moved adoption of the Executive Council recommendations for the 80 Assembly Districts as a whole and as amended by Convention action.

The motion was carried.

Executive Secretary-Treasurer Henning then presented the two procedural resolutions to cover the period of time between April 8, 1970 and Election Day, June 2, 1970:

"I move that whenever and wherever an office is left open in the action of this Convention, the Secretary-Treasurer, subject to the approval of the Executive Council, shall be given full power to act and make endorsements after consultation with the local COPE anywhere they exist."

The motion was seconded and passed. Secretary-Treasurer Henning continued: "Mr. Chairman, delegates, I move that the Executive Council shall be authorized to withdraw the endorsement of any candidate should his actions be detrimental to the labor movement."

The motion was seconded and passed.

Committee on Resolutions

Chairman Gruhn next called on the Committee on Resolutions, whose chairman, T. A. Small, reported that there had been no resolutions submitted to the Committee, therefore no action had taken place.

Chairman Small expressed regret that Sigmund Arywitz, a member of the Committee on Resolutions, was not able to attend due to a death in his family.

President Gruhn discharged the Committee with thanks.

Committee on Constitution

President Gruhn then called on Wilbur Fillippini, chairman of the Committee on Constitution.

Chairman Fillippini reported that no action was taken due to the fact that no resolutions had been submitted to the Committee.

Introduction of Thomas L. Pitts Former Executive Secretary-Treasurer

At this point, Chairman Gruhn introduced Thomas L. Pitts, former Secretary-Treasurer of the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO and California Labor COPE, with these words:

". . . I would like to call upon an old warhorse in this trade union movement who put all his life, from the time he was a young fellow, in helping to build the trade union movement. He fought the hard fight down in the open shop area of Los Angeles and helped straighten a lot of that situation out, which helped make this a better and greater overall union state.

"He served as Vice President of the California Labor Federation, later as our Federation and COPE President and Secretary-Treasurer. He started in with the Federation back in 1941 as an Executive Council member and then served ten years as President before he became the Secretary-Treasurer.

"I am very pleased to be able to present to you our former Secretary-Treasurer and our dear friend, Tom Pitts."

ADDRESS Thomas L. Pitts

"Thank you, Al, Jack, all of my former colleagues of the Executive Council and good friends Al Barkan, LaMar Gulbransen and all of you who have so kindly treated me throughout so many years of my time in trying to provide what I could in the best way that I could some leadership to this labor mevement in California.

"I am not exactly pleased at the position I find myself in. And that is one of (you might say) inaction, to a degree. I sort of miss the action. But as you see, I am here.

"I am a delegate to this Convention from my Bartenders Union, casting my votes along with all the rest of you. And it is really a bit of a pleasure to be back around and see the old gang again. And I am just happy to have this moment to say 'Hi' to you. And I am not going to say 'Good-by,' because I am not leaving the state. I will be around and see you again from time to time.

"I am just pleased as all hell to be here for this moment today.

"Thank you."

Final Report of Committee on Credentials

Chairman Gruhn called upon Ernest M. King, member of the Committee on Credentials, who presented the Committee's final report. (See Completed Roll of Delegates.)

On his motion, duly seconded and carried, the final report was adopted

At this point, Chairman Gruhn briefly reminded the delegation of the time and meeting place of the Area COPE Conference.

tive Secretary-Treasurer Henning, who thanked the Advisory Committee for its efforts in assisting the Executive Council.

"Mr. Chairman and delegates, I would like to thank the advisory group that gave advice to the Executive Council following its interviewing, together with the Executive Council, of all candidates for endorsement who sought our endorsement in statewide office. Charles Weist, Fire Fighters Local No. 778, Los Angeles.

"Mr. Chairman, delegates, I appreciate the fact that the hour is very late. But I do want to thank all of you for your attendance. I want to thank Al Barkan for coming here from Washington, D. C. to reflect the thinking and opinions of the national leadership of the trade union movement.

"I spoke before with respect to Tom Pitts and how deeply touched we are by his presence and by his long years of service to the trade union movement.

Liberal Movement in Disarray

"I would leave one last message. The liberal movement in California is in total disarray. It is torn by internal divisions, by disillusionment, by disenchantment. It is in no position to lead the masses of the people of this state.

"There is only one organization at the moment that has the material capacity, the membership and the philosophy to lead the liberal movement in California, and that is the trade union organization of this state. Specifically it is the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO. We have more than a million and a half members. We have the organizational apparatus. We have the program that can give this country the kind of a government it needs in Sacramento and in Washington. It can give all of our people a civilization worth living in. But it is up to you

"It is up to you to forget theoretical arguments and get out and support our organization in the precinct work. The people who are here are committed to action and not mere theory. And it will be our honor to serve with you in the months ahead during the campaign during the primary election and also before the general election in November. We have no sense of defeat, because we know the last victory will be ours.

"Thank you."

Adjournment

There being no further business to come before the Convention, and there being no objection, Chairman Gruhn adjourned the Pre-Primary Election Convention of the California Labor Council on Political Education sine die at 1:50 p.m.

REPORT OF SECRETARY-TREASURER

To the 1970 Pre-Primary Convention of the California Labor Council on Political Education:

GREETINGS!

Within the 18 months since the conclusion of the 1968 election campaigns the impact of conservative political influence has been harshly evident at both the federal and state levels of government.

In both Washington and Sacramento the labor-liberal movement has been placed on the defensive. The forward progress that identified so much of the 1960s has long since been blunted and reversed.

Despite the reality that America is in a serious social crisis the conservative powers of the nation are trying to turn back the clock of history in the economic and social areas. We have returned to the era of contrived and planned unemployment in the economic sphere and in the social theatre we have the national Administration fostering a Southern strategy that only means division between our people on both a racial and regional basis.

During the critical Presidential election of 1968 liberal America was in complete disarray. Only organized labor had the will and commitment to fight for Hubert Humphrey.

The California Labor Council on Political Education appreciated the nature of the Presidential struggle. Abandoned by many of labor's traditional allies, California COPE in cooperation with national COPE mustered a magnificent resistance which held the line of survival at national and state levels.

Tribute to Labor's success and vigor is found in Theodore White's book, "The Making of a President—1968," in which the author observed:

"In the near-miracle of the Humphrey comeback, no single factor was more important than the army of organized labor, roused to the greatest political exertion of its history."

Citing the threat posed by the third party candidacy of George Wallace, White wrote:

"Refusing to cry, the AFL-CIO set out immediately after the convention, therefore, for a classic exercise. The strategy was homely and time-honored: to register working people, and then get them out to vote. But the results, efforts and techniques were staggering . . .

"Wherever an 'unexpected' Humphrey surge developed, there, underbracing it, was the effort of COPE (the AFL-CIO's Committee on Political Education) . . . one could trace labor's efforts all across the country."

California Labor COPE is proud of its place in that fight. While public opinion polls early in October showed Wallace gathering more than 22 percent of the vote, the impact of the distribution of literally millions of campaign pamphlets and other labor activities were reflected a month later when Wallace wound up with only 13.5 percent of the vote nationally and only 6.7 percent of the total vote cast for Presidential electors in California.

As White saw it in his study of the election later:

"By late October, labor's effort had begun to ravage the Wallace base in the north. Wallace as a 'friend of the working man' was a phony ran the theme of the 20 million pieces of specifically anti-Wallace literature distributed . . .

"Thus, as Hubert Humphrey appealed to the consciences of white working men in the public square and on radio and TV, labor's leadership drove home the split in conscience Humphrey's eloquence had wedged open by more direct appeal.

"A working man can choose to go with racist George Wallace—but to do so he must desert all other traditional loyalties and his own interests. . . .

"The argument began to tell on thousands; by the end of October even Flint's Local 559 (a local that earlier in the campaign had shown strong Wallace support) had reversed itself and come out for Hubert Humphrey."

Ultimately, despite his initial enormous lead according to popularity polls, Richard M. Nixon won the Presidency by a hair. And in California, the Presidential coattail had no beneficial effect on conservative Max Rafferty who was defeated by COPE-endorsed Alan Cranston for the sole U.S. Senate seat at stake.

In pressing the campaign in behalf of Humphrey, Cranston, and other statewide and legislative district offices, California Labor COPE organized a statewide task force which served local and district COPEs in a variety of ways and helped to expedite the distribution of 10 million pieces of campaign materials including:

- More than 1.6 million California Labor COPE general election endorsement pamphlets containing COPE's recommendations for statewide and district offices. These pamphlets were printed and distributed in 16 variations to accommodate major regions of the state and to facilitate the identification of local district office endorsements by union members and their families.
- More than 7 million copies of seven pamphlets comparing the records of Humphrey, Nixon, and Wallace and spelling out the key issues in the campaign.

In addition, California Labor COPE distributed thousands of Humphrey-Muskie buttons, posters, and bumper strips as well as a number of pro-Humphrey and anti-Wallace radio tapes.

It also developed a special flyer titled, "What's the Matter With Kansas" to point up the threat of the right-to-work issue in view of the earlier incorporation of "Californians for Right-to-Work."

And in an effort to give trade unionists an opportunity to review the actions of their congressmen and state legislators, California Labor COPE also distributed more than a million copies of the voting records of the national AFL-CIO and the California Labor Federation

These efforts, coupled with a vigorous and well coordinated get-out-the-vote effort, were generally credited with dashing the pre-election hopes of the reactionary forces in California and throughout the nation for a conservative sweep.

Thus, California's congressional delegation was unchanged. Former Lt. Gov. Glenn M. Anderson picked up the 17th Congressional District seat vacated by Congressman Cecil R. King who retired, leaving California's congressional delegation consisting of 21 Democrats and 17 Republicans.

Although Governor Reagan called for substantial Republican majorities in both houses of the legislature, the battle for the State Senate ended in a standoff with 10 incumbent Republicans and 10 incumbent Democratic winning reelection.

Among the highlights of that battle was a strenuous effort by conservative forces to oust Senator Nicholas C. Petris in Alameda County. A special pamphlet developed by California Labor COPE for this race was credited with making a substantial contribution to Senator Petris' defeat of Alameda County Supervisor Robert E. Hannon by a vote of 183,122 to 148,777.

In the lower house, however, the story was different. For the first time in 10 years, the Republican Party gained control of the Assembly, winning 41 of the 80 seats.

In percentage terms, 67 percent or 76 of the 113 candidates endorsed by California Labor COPE in the November 1968 elections were winners. Here is the breakdown:

Of the 34 candidates endorsed for the House of Representatives, 22, or 64 percent, were victorious.

In the State Senate 12 of the 15 COPEendorsed candidates, or 80 percent, won; and in the Assembly 41 of the 61 COPEendorsed candidates were elected, for a margin of 67 percent in the lower House.

In addition to Alan Cranston's victory over Max Rafferty for the only U.S. Senate seat at stake, COPE-endorsed candidates winning congressional seats in 1968 were as follows:

Little more than a month ago Secretary-Treasurer Thomas Pitts publicized a recent study by State COPE that disclosed that less than one out of every two trade unionists in California are presently registered. It is more important for all of us-local members, shop stewards, local officers and business representatives -to keep the voter registration issue before the membership day-in and day-out.

The arithmetic of the voter registration issue is elementary. With more than 1.5 million AFL-CIO members in the State of California, the fact that less than half are registered to vote means that fully 750,-000 union members are letting somebody else make their decisions for them.

Through a computer program developed by State COPE in cooperation with National COPE, we are now in a position to supply most local unions and central bodies with computer print-outs of the unregistered membership in their area. But the responsibility for actually getting the registration job done must, necessarily, remain at the local union and central body level.

Little more than a year ago the U.S. Commerce Department conducted a survey that found that more than 22 million citizens just don't bother to vote.

Typical of the response of those surveyed were "just didn't get around to it" or "just couldn't be bothered."

Other findings of that survey which are pertinent to COPE efforts at every level were that:

- Voter participation is highest in the middle age groups (45-54 and 55-64 years), drops off among older persons but is lowest among those under 25.
- Voter participation rises with the educational level of the voters, ranging from a low of 31 percent for those with four years or less of elementary school to a high of about 71 percent for college graduates.
- Persons in white collar occupations are more likely to vote than blue collar workers, service workers, operatives, laborers, and household workers.
- Voter participation among the nonwhite population was significantly lower than that of the nation as a whole-41 percent as compared with the overall rate of 55 percent.
- The South had a much lower voter participation rate than the rest of the country-43 percent against 61 percent for all other regions combined.
- Voter participation tends to increase with the level of family income, reaching a peak of 78 percent for persons 45 to 64 years old in families with incomes of $10,000 a year or more.

In California, with its population of more than 20 million, it is estimated that about 12 million citizens are of voting age. But as of January, 1970, only 7,661,-633 were registered.

If just half of the 750,000 AFL-CIO union members who are presently not registered would register and go to the polls and vote for COPE-endorsed candidates who support programs to curb inflation without massive job cutbacks and outrageous interest rates, they would be bringing 325,000 more votes into the electoral process.

Those are votes that could decide the complexion of the legislature that acts on reapportionment. They are the votes that could make the difference in key legislative districts throughout the state this year. They are the votes that could decide whether we get universal health care legislation through congress next year or not until 1981 or later.

There have been four special elections for state legislative and congressional offices since the windup of the 1968 General Election.

The death of Senator George Miller, Jr. in the 7th State Senatorial District resulted in a special primary election on February 25, 1969 which was won by George Miller III, the COPE endorsed candidate. But Miller was defeated in a special runoff election on April 29, 1969 by John A. Nejedly.

The resignation of Assemblyman John G. Veneman (R-Modesto) to take the post of Under Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare in the Nixon Administration resulted in a special election in the 30th Assembly District in which the COPE endorsed candidate, Ernest La Coste triumphed in the special primary on April 1969 but was defeated by Clare L. Berryhill in the runoff election on May 20, 1969 by just 50 votes.

When Governor Reagan appointed Congressman Ed Reinecke Lt. Governor, a vacancy was created in the 27th Congressional District. The COPE endorsed candidate, John J. Van De Kamp won the special primary on April 1, 1969 but was defeated by Barry Goldwater, Jr. in the runoff election on April 29, 1969.

One June 17, 1969 a special election was held to fill the 34th Assembly District seat in Monterey County vacated by the death of Assemblyman Alan G. Pattee. In that election, the COPE endorsed candidate, Fred Farr, was defeated by Robert G. Wood, a Monterey County Supervisor.

FEDERAL AND STATE ISSUES GUIDES

To help county, district, and regional or area COPE organizations conduct effective interviews of candidates within their jurisdictions, California Labor COPE also developed and published separate issues guides for federal and state candidates which included a series of questions designed to provide some insight to each candidate's views on social and economic policy matters that directly affect the health and welfare of California workers.

SPECIAL ELECTIONS

These guides were distributed to all county and regional COPEs early last month.

OTHER SERVICES TO LOCAL COPES

In an effort to assist local and district COPEs keep abreast of changes in the Election Code and fluctuations in registrations in various Congressional, State Senate, and Assembly Districts with which they are involved, California Labor COPE has also made a point of acquiring state publications such as the various reports on voter registration and the election calendar in distributing these to COPE jurisdictions throughout the state.

In addition, it has continued to service local COPE requests for research and information and, as in the past, maintained a library of films available to COPE units throughout the state.

In this connection it should be mentioned that three new films geared to the 1970 campaign year are now available. They are: "1970—The Big One," which features a message from AFL-CIO President George Meany on the need for an all out effort in the 1970 elections; "A Personal Commitment," a film which depicts techniques of registration and getting out the vote; and "We Come to Bat," a film pointing up the issues and consequences of the 1970 congressional elections.

California Labor COPE has ordered copies of these films to have them available for use by California Labor COPE affiliates. The affiliate need only pay the return postage costs of shipping the film and agree to return the film within 24 hours after its scheduled date of use.

Affiliates desiring to order the films may also rent them from the AFL-CIO Film Division at 815 16th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006 at a cost of $3 per film per showing.

MAY 2, 1970

In less than a month a four-state regional COPE Conference will be held at the Sheraton Palace Hotel in San Francisco. All California Labor COPE affiliates are urged to send as many delegates as possible to this convention.

The conference will be opened to delegates from California, Arizona, Hawaii, and Nevada and there is no limit on the number of delegates a local union or other affiliated organization may send.

The conference will feature panels of lawmakers from the four states involved who will discuss legislative goals and review congressional action or inaction on a number of key issues.

In view of the revival of the conservative-Dixiecrat coalition following the 1968 election—a revival that is perhaps symbolized by the Haynsworth—Carswell nominations—it is clearly essential that every union member and every facility available to organized labor in California be mobilized now to reverse the trend toward reaction and retreat on key socioeconomic issues that have characterized both the state and national administrations during the past few years. The regional COPE conference on May 2 is designed to assist toward that end. All California Labor COPE affiliates are urged to plan now to send delegates to participate in it.

In conclusion, it must be emphasized that the 1970 elections are critical both because of the reapportionment that will follow the 1970 decennial census now in progress and because of the commanding decisions that must be made within the next two years on issues that vitally affect both the health of our national and state economy and the health of the very environment in which we live.

Both as citizens and as trade unionists, we know we can effect change within our democratic processes and we know we need to do it now. The lessons of trade union history have made it clear that we must act with unity and dedication. That is our mission in 1970.

Fraternally submitted,

JOHN F. HENNING Secretary-Treasurer
