PROCEEDINGS of the
1974 Pre-Primary Election Convention of the
California Labor Council on Political Education
AFL-CIO

Thursday, April 11, 1974

Civic Auditorium

San Francisco, California

Call to Order

President Albin J. Gruhn called the convention to order at 10:23 a.m. in the Civic Auditorium:

"Delegates, I do declare this 1974 Pre-Primary Convention of the California Labor Council on Political Education in order to transact such business as may legally come before it."

He then led the delegates in the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Invocation

Reverend Andrew Juvinall
Pastor Emeritus
Hamilton United Methodist Church
San Francisco

President Gruhn introduced the Reverend Andrew Juvinall, Pastor Emeritus, Hamilton United Methodist Church, San Francisco, who delivered the following invocation:

"Let us pray.

"God of all peoples, we invoke Your blessing on this convocation. We thank You that despite abuses of power we have a free country, we have a free labor movement. Our freedom will continue as long as we are willing to be alert and responsible.

"We don't need to tell You that we have many problems on this planet; and even in this Garden of Eden called California we ask that Your spirit of wisdom be present as important choices are made here today.

"We sorely need leaders who put people above power and personal profit. We need leaders of intelligence and imagination. We need leaders of courage, compassion and conscience.

"To this end guide the deliberations and decisions made here today. Amen."

Introduction of

The Honorable Joseph L. Alioto
Mayor of San Francisco

Mayor Joseph L. Alioto was then introduced to the delegates by President Gruhn for the welcoming address:

"Delegates, it is once again my pleasure and privilege to introduce to you for a welcome to San Francisco (I have said it before and I will say it again) one of the great labor mayors, in fact, one of the greatest labor mayors, of any city in this country—one who has been a true friend of the trade-union movement and one who just recently, in a labor-strike situation in San Francisco, stood up with the trade-union movement in its endeavors to obtain better wages and better conditions for the workforce in the public sector.

"So it is indeed a pleasure for me to present to you again to this Convention the mayor of the City and County of San Francisco: Mayor Joseph L. Alioto."

Welcome to San Francisco

The Honorable Joseph L. Alioto
Mayor of San Francisco

"Right off the bat, Ladies and Gentlemen, I have got to thank the Reverend for referring to California as 'the Garden of Eden.' I have got to thank him for that. But I want to assure the Reverend and the rest of you too, that the apple tree does not grow in San Francisco.

"I want to tell you about the Garden of Eden; and I want to tell you one other thing. And this may hurt you, too, because I literally want to apologize for it. You can't get a cheap McDonald hamburger in San Francisco either!

"I want to make it absolutely clear because I am looking at a book that somebody put here called 'Robert's Rules of Order' that I am here in my capacity as Mayor of San Francisco and that's the only hat that I intend to wear. I do have another hat, as you know, as a gubernatorial candidate. But far be it from me to try to confuse the two this morning.

"However, I want to welcome you folks to what may be an historical convention. Because I want to tell you something. I have read Proposition Nine very closely (I stayed up until 1:30 the other night). And if Proposition Nine passes, you may never have a convention again from here on in!

"You may have to go back to the catacombs that you were in at the turn of the century from some of the definitions that I have read on Proposition Nine. So this may be, as I say, a very, very historic convention.

"But I want to welcome you to San Francisco. I want to tell you that what you are deliberating about is not just important to you. It is important to this entire State. Not what you do on specific matters, but the fact that the representatives of the workingmen and the workingwomen of America are gathered here to exercise their right under the First Amendment and their right under the Fourteenth Amendment really to set out the kind of political choices they want and to raise money for them.

'Prop. 1 Soaks Poor'

"We have a so-called 'Clean campaign law' that probably will be passed in June because it has acquired a motherhood label. Proposition One had a motherhood label too, you know—tax ceilings, lower taxes. But then we all read the fine print and we realized that in that fine print Proposition One was just a deal to soak the poor to help the rich—and the voters exercised their intelligence upon it. And now we are going to have to do the same thing, it seems to me, on this other matter. And I don't know anybody who can bring it about better than you folks.

"You know, the labor unions were the original lobbyists. And some of those lobbyists are being condemned just because they are lobbyists. As I told some of you folks, the Archbishop was a lobbyist too when he lobbied for social justice for the poor, and the Jewish community spokesmen are lobbyists when they lobby for child care centers, and the Protestant churches are lobbyists when they lobby for the right to private education. All of these folks are lobbyists.

Outlaws Good Lobbyists

"There are good lobbyists and there are bad lobbyists. But the problem with Proposition Nine is that literally it outlaws the good lobbyists and leaves those corporate heads, those executives who run the monopoly corporations of this State, who don't show up in the open as lobbyists—the Salvatoris and the David Packards and the Firestones—alone.

"And you know, there are some people who think that consumerism was invented yesterday or that it was invented by Ralph Nader, who has done an outstanding job. But those of us who know the history of the labor movement know that the folks who were in there fighting for better hours and minimum pay were the labor unions; the folks who were in there fighting for truth in advertising on food products were the labor unions; the folks who were in there fighting for a decent public education for all children were the labor unions who wanted a decent public education for the boys and girls of the working community. We know that long before these things were invented the really good lobbyists on behalf of most people were the labor unions. But now John Gardner, an out-of-state Republican, has literally said in his printed arguments that the purpose of Proposition Nine among other things is to take away the political lobbying strength of the labor unions. He has literally said it!

"I want to say that Jack Henning ought to be proud to be sued by that crowd or whoever sued him yesterday. I have been sued too, you know. Remember John Mitchell and Egil Krogh. And I was sued by the Chamber of Commerce three weeks ago—for a billion dollars. And I don't have a billion dollars. They sued me anyway. And a Federal judge threatened to hold me in contempt of court. He issued a show-cause order. He said: Show up in court to tell me why you shouldn't be held in contempt.

"I want to remind you of that because I want to demonstrate why your lobbying activities are important. Do you think that the union-busting tactics are finished? At the turn of the century did you have to fight the police breaking strikes? Not at the turn of the century. In 1934 the police were on the side of the employers to break a strike and the Governor sent the militia and the National Guard down to San Francisco to break the strike, and they went to court to have the strike declared illegal. They found compliant judges who would do it. And they went to court to declare after a strike is illegal that you can arrest peaceful pickets. Not violent pickets, but you can arrest peaceful pickets!

"That belongs to ancient history, doesn't it? We don't hear that anymore today. We have learned something—except from Governor Reagan and Dr. Houston I. Flournoy, who got a Ph.D. at Princeton. At Princeton they taught him the way to settle a public strike is to fire the strikers and bring in scabs.

"But I can't do that, you see, because I have to obey the law. This is the only major city in California and one of the few in the country that has written right in its ordinances, right in its basic laws, that you can't bring strikebreakers and scabs into San Francisco. We need to enforce that ordinance.

"And if I have to defy the Governor and if I have to defy Dr. Flournoy and if I have to tell the court that what it was doing was unwise—if I have to do all of those things, so much the better. Because there is another little law, you know. It is called the Constitution of the United States. And in that law it gives every American man, woman and child the right to voluntarily withhold their labor and to peacefully proclaim that they are the victims of economic injustice. That law is superior to Governor Reagan, Dr. Flournoy, the courts or anybody else! That law is superior to all of those things. And you still have a fight to do!

"So in any event, welcome to San Francisco. It's a real pleasure to have you here. We have arranged for a beautiful day for you as well. And after your very important deliberations are over, you have a good time on the town!

"Welcome to San Francisco!"

Welcome to Delegates and Visitors

Albin J. Gruhn

President

California Labor COPE

President Gruhn, Chairman of the Convention, then addressed the delegates and visitors with these words:

"Delegates, I am pleased to take this opportunity to welcome you and the guests to this 1974 Pre-Primary Convention of the California Labor Council on Political Education.

"Some may take this welcome as perfunctory. But let me say that I thank God that the labor movement of California can gather freely to engage in one of the fundamental concepts of democracy. And that is the right to collectively meet to determine the choices of the AFL-CIO movement of this State with respect to the statewide and district political offices irrespective of party affiliation.

"Our California Labor COPE and the local and district COPEs are structured to assure the ultimate in the democratic process as related to the endorsement procedure. After we have completed our work at this vital convention of 1974, let us be united in our efforts and determination to assure the ultimate victory of liberal candidates—not only in the June primary election but in the November election also. Let us decisively defeat the infamous Proposition Nine, a proposition that would hamstring the labor movement in carrying out its responsibilities to the people in the legislature and governmental agencies of our State.

"The future of our communities, our State, our nation, and the freedom-loving people of the world will be largely determined by the labor movement's efforts in the political arena. The labor movement is truly the people's lobby.

"We must and we shall do our part to elect a veto-proof congress—one that will be able to override the unconscionable vetoes of the anti-labor and anti-people President of the United States—Richard Milhous Nixon—and in the event of his impeachment, his successor.

"Our Executive Secretary-Treasurer, John F. Henning, in his report to this convention has laid out clearly the issues confronting us now and in the days ahead. And I urge each and every one of you to read this excellent report.

"In conclusion let me once again say that the officers of the California Labor Council on Political Education will be working with you in all parts of this State to assure victory in the forthcoming election. Let us always remember that in unity there is strength. This holds true not only on the economic front but on the political front as well.

"Thank you very much."

Chairman Gruhn next called upon John

F. Henning, Executive Secretary-Treasurer of California Labor COPE to introduce the following speaker, National COPE Director Alexander E. Barkan.

Introduction of

Alexander E. Barkan

National Director

Committee on Political Education,
AFL-CIO

With these words, Secretary-Treasurer Henning introduced Director Barkan:

"Mr. Chairman and delegates. The presence here today of Al Barkan is a reminder that we can have unity within the labor movement despite sharp differences in political opinion. I don't think that in the history of the AFL or the AFL-CIO movement in this State there was ever a greater difference politically than there was two years ago on the question of Richard Nixon. At that time we differed with the position of Al Barkan and the National Executives. But we also recognized that they were selfless, dedicated, incorruptible men who had a different way of looking at a political situation than did most of us.

"Al Barkan commits himself completely—all of his talents, all of his energies—to the advance of the trade-union movement of this country through effective political action.

"We welcome you to California. You are one of the great moral leaders of the movement and you do signify the fact that free men can differ and yet preserve unity in the face of the common enemy.

"It is an honor to present him. Al Barkan!"

Remarks

Alexander E. Barkan

National Director

Committee on Political Education,
AFL-CIO

"Jack, Al, leaders of California labor. We wound up yesterday a series of state leadership meetings in coast-to-coast conferences that started out on the East Coast some weeks ago. I suggested to Jack early this morning that with your crowded agenda, maybe he could give me a rain-check.

"He said: 'No. Senator Cranston is in Washington on the campaign bill; Senator Williams, of the Senate Labor Committee couldn't make it, and,' he said, 'if you bow out we will have struck out on all of our invited speakers.' So I am here.

"I am assuming, Jack, that I have got the time of Cranston and Williams and myself all put together now. However, I won't take advantage of that. I have my wife here with me. She saw that television performance with Mrs. Alioto when she bawled out the mayor for his absence on the political trail. And my wife said: That's me! And she gave me unshirted hell because I leave her all alone at home. So I decided to do the courteous thing, and I have brought her here and she is with me. And every time she is with me I am reminded of an admonition.

"My wife knows what a long-winded speaker I am. And every time she knows I am going to speak she says: 'Remember Gettysburg!'

"What she means by that is this:

Quantity vs. Quality

"I live about ninety miles from Gettysburg in Bethesda, Maryland. When I first moved there seventeen years ago I took my two young daughters, then nine and ten, to visit that famous battlefield. We hired a guide and he took us around to the very spot where the immortal Gettysburg Address was made. And I, like you, was under the impression that Lincoln was the featured speaker of the day. But I learned for the first time that the president of Harvard University was in fact the featured speaker of the day. He spoke for an hour—and no one really knows that he was there. And Lincoln spoke for just a few minutes—and the world has never forgotten his remarks.

"And so that is what my wife means when she says: 'Remember Gettysburg!'

"All right. I am not surprised coming to California and hearing about Proposition Nine. You would be making a mistake if you assume that this assault on labor's rights was just peculiar, just isolated to California. As a matter of fact, there is a nationwide, multi-level assault upon us. Nationally, we have the President of the United States recommending to the congress that labor be prohibited from making a contribution to a political candidate. We would have to make it through a political party, which we have never done. Even worse, he would practically eliminate the pooling of funds as we do in our dollar drive. We pool them and then we make contributions to COPE-endorsed candidates. He specifically asked that that be restricted.

"You have, not alone in California, but we have experienced a rash of propositions in thirty states that would restrict and limit us. It got so bad that President Meany set up a special task force headed by Frank Emig in Arizona, where our movement is weak. The Republicans control both houses of the state legislature. They have the Governor. They didn't need Common Cause. They passed a law (and it is now on the books) that practically cripples our political effort there. The law they passed in Arizona is so serious that our lawyers have told us: 'Don't send a cent in to Wyoming until we get clarification of what that law really means.' But in Wisconsin, in Michigan, in Minnesota, in Ohio, in Pennsylvania, and in Delaware, thirty states, we are fighting as you are fighting here an attack on our political rights in the courts. A couple of years ago we had to fight our old adversary, the Right-to-Work Committee, in court cases involving the railroad unions in Georgia and in North Carolina. Recently here in California the Machinists won an important case brought by the Right-to-Work Committee on behalf of some dissident members that opposed the union's political program. And even though they were an infinitesimal majority, with high-priced legal talent put up by the Aid-Right-to-Work Committee, they contested it in the courts and they are going to bring it up to the Supreme Court. But at the moment the Machinists have won that battle.

"Administratively, I don't know if you have experienced what the JAO and the Internal Revenue Service are doing. They spent several weeks in the national headquarters of COPE going through our books. The Machinists are getting a second go-around. Likewise the Steelworkers. Joe Keenan called me up to tell me that they are in the IBEW headquarters. All claims of harassment. And that's why I say that it does not surprise me coming to California and hearing about your Proposition Nine.

"I can understand why the Republicans and the Dixiecrats in the South are pushing this kind of legislation, but for the world of me I can't understand Common Cause. Common Cause has in fact some labor people on their board of directors, but they have taken an anti-labor turn, whether they understand it or not, and they are reassuring us that 'Well, it is not going to really hurt labor.'

"Well, I am no lawyer. I prefer to take the advice of our lawyers; take the advice of Mayor Alioto, who is a lawyer. I prefer to believe them. This is going to be tested in the courts. And I don't know about the California Supreme Court, but I can tell you about the Nixon Supreme Court. And I am not willing to take a chance on a bill like this before a Nixon Supreme Court—and I don't think you should either!

"So much for anti-labor legislation.

Country in a Mess

"I was glad to hear Al report that the goal in the congressional and the senatorial races for California labor is a veto-proof congress. I don't have to tell you, this country is in a terrible mess. We're in the midst of the worst political scandal in two hundred years of American history. This great and proud nation bowed its head in shame, betrayed by its leaders, by an administration twisted in corruption. The White House in Washington, of Lincoln, and of Roosevelt, is surrounded by a stench of corruption, a cloud of suspicion.

"You know the sordid story. There is no need to go into it. If in addition to the corruption we had nothing else, we would still be in a terrible mess. But add to it the frightful domestic mess that we are in — five million unemployed, a 41% increase in the cost-of-living since Nixon took over, inflation increasing at a record rate. Last year it was 8.9%. For the first three months of 1974 it is increasing at a ten percent rate. And if you don't get a ten percent increase in 1974, thanks to Nixon, you will take a wage cut. Skyrocketing prices. Spreading shortages. Increasing unemployment.

"This country, leaders of labor, fellow Americans, is adrift. Nixon has no plan to right the economic wrongs that we are suffering. Phase I, Phase II, Phase III and Phase IV—colossal failures.

"The only way you are going to change this is by that veto-proof congress. You saw the millions of leaflets and pamphlets that we go out documenting the case for the impeachment of Nixon. But we don't kid ourselves. Gerald Ford would be no better, would give us poor comfort. This man has a track record of 109 votes on the COPE scorecard—103 wrong and 6 right.

"On 23 gut issues—I am talking about Landrum-Griffin, about 14(b), Taft-Hartley, minimum wage, social security, health insurance, you name it—23 times Ford went to bat—and he struck out for us 23 times. He wasn't even right once by mistake!

"So there will be little comfort for us even if Ford takes over. The one sure way is a veto-proof congress. The arithmetic is simple. We need 23 more votes in the house on top of what we have now and seven more senate seats on top of what we have now.

"We sat down with Jack Henning and leaders of central labor bodies the other night and we went over the senate race of Alan Cranston. We were happy. And that's part of the fight: to return our friends like Senator Cranston.

Thanks To U.S. Senator Alan Cranston

"And by the way, let me say this. I told this to Jack. I didn't know Alan Cranston intimately, but I had the opportunity of working side by side with him over a period of several weeks as we took on Nixon in the White House and the Republicans and the Dixiecrats to bust a filibuster against our registration by mail. And I want to publicly, in his own State, thank Alan Cranston for the job that he did. With ninety-nine senators voting, we beat the filibuster by two votes. Alan Cranston in my judgment made that possible.

"So your job in California is to reelect Alan Cranston, reelect our congressional friends and make your contribution to those extra 23 votes that we need.

"Jack Henning was very hopeful. He talked about the opportunity of picking up four strong possibilities and a possibility of nine other seats.

Six Congress Seats Needed

"I told Jack I was willing right then and there to shake his hand. If California would just give us six of those thirteen, you will have paid your contribution to the 23.

"I think that we are going to do it. I told President Meany and the Council that I feel very, very hopeful about picking up the 23 seats in the House. On the Senate side, it is going to be a little tougher, but I am encouraged. We have had four congressional elections—all of them solid Republican seats. We won three of them. If the Democrats weren't in there with seven candidates, we could have easily won that seat here in California. But we won three out of four. And we have one coming up in Michigan on Tuesday.

"I was speaking to Bill Marshall this morning, asking him to give me a report. Bill is the president of the Michigan COPE.

"How did the Nixon visit go up there?

"Mind you, here is a district that has one percent unemployment. The big cities are Saginaw and Bay City. Where does this 'courageous leader' of ours go? Does he go in the areas with eleven percent unemployment? No. He goes way up in what they call the 'thumb'—a rural area.

"Does he talk about unemployment? Does he talk about inflation? No. He goes up there and he talks about giving the farmers more fertilizer.

"Now, he is an expert on that all right!

"Of course this is the 'great' President who talks about bringing the country together. It's like 1968. He was going to take crime off the streets. Well, he took crime off of the streets all right, but he put crime right there in the White House; That's what he did.

"So here he is. In addition to the fertilizer, he brings up the busing issue. If there is anything designed to create social friction, it's that issue. And he comes up there and stirs it.

"Well, I asked Bill Marshall: 'How do you think it is going to go? What should I tell the delegates at the California COPE Conference?'

"He told me to tell you in spite of Nixon, in spite of the Republican tradition in this district, he thinks Michigan labor is going to carry that district on Tuesday. So let's watch it and let's hope that he is correct.

"And finally I shall conclude. I told you I am encouraged. The wounds of '72 are healing fast. I have never seen the unity, I have never seen the spirit, that I see amongst those people. I believe we are going to win. In the words of the Spirit, deep down in my heart I really believe all of us—white and black, young and old, blue-collar and white-collar — working together, marching together, fighting together, in these next six months and, above all, voting together. We shall overcome!"

Chairman Gruhn thanked Director Barkan for his remarks to the convention:

"Thank you very much, Al, for that very informative and inspiring speech to the delegates on the issues facing us in the days ahead. I am confident that the California labor movement with its other friends and the liberal force in this State, will produce. As Jack Henning indicated, we may even surprise you. He told me that we may even give you a little bonus come November of this year in the general election.

"Thank you very much, Al, for being with us."

Secretary-Treasurer Henning also thanked Director Barkan:

"Mr. Chairman and delegates. I wish to thank Al Barkan also. He asked to be excused from speaking this morning. He said his voice has been reduced to a whisper!"

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL AND ENDORSEMENTS BY THE CONVENTION

John F. Henning, Executive Secretary-Treasurer

Chairman Gruhn called upon Secretary-Treasurer Henning for the report of the Executive Council.

Secretary-Treasurer Henning reported as follows:

"The Executive Council of the California Labor Council on Political Education, together with the duly appointed Advisory Committee, met in the TowneHouse Hotel April 8, 9 and 10, 1974, to interview candidates for statewide offices in the primary elections of June 4.

"On April 10, the Advisory Committee made its recommendations to the Executive Council.

"The Executive Council then met in separate session April 10, 1974 and made the following recommendations to the convention:"

United States Senate

The Executive Council recommended:

Democratic: Alan Cranston

Republican: No Endorsement

Secretary-Treasurer Henning then moved adoption of the Executive Council's recommendation.

The motion was seconded and carried.

Message from Sen. Alan Cranston

Chairman Gruhn then told the delegates of Senator Cranston's message to be transmitted to the convention by telephone:

"Delegates, as I understand it, right now the Senator whom we have just endorsed for the June Primary and eventually reelection in November, the Honorable Alan Cranston, would like to express his appreciation to us by telephone from Washington, D.C. As reported earlier, he is tied up in a very important committee in the Congress and we are waiting for the call."

Secretary-Treasurer Henning took the telephone call and Senator Cranston spoke to the convention as follows:

"I am very sorry that I am delayed in Washington and I am not able to gather in person with you in San Francisco. I was grateful to Jack Henning for inviting me to be with you at COPE today. I deeply appreciate the support that I am counting on in this year's campaign and I regret that I can't say 'Hello' to each of you.

"I also regret that I was unable to be with you on April 8, 9 and 10 to be interviewed, but I was confined to Washington so that I could help lead the battle to reform the abuse of money in politics, to eliminate the abuse of huge corporate, Big-Business checks and other huge campaign contributions in the ways that are so corrupting and compromising in American politics and in the decision-making in our democracy that led to the scandals of Watergate, the Agnew scandals, and to too much influence for some and too little voice for others in our democracy and in our government. I led the battle to break the filibuster against this bill. We won that battle. I hope that before the day is over we will pass this bill through the Senate. And with your help, we will have to persuade the House to pass it—and I hope that we don't have a veto from President Nixon.

"There are many issues on which we shall be working and about which I thought I might talk to you today.

"In general it seems that once upon a time a man named Richard Nixon had six crises. And if that is not enough, he is giving us three more: the energy crisis; unemployment and inflation crises; and he has given us the Watergate crisis. But we can and will overcome these and any other crises thrust upon us by Richard the First and Last.

Wage-Price Control Issue

"One matter on which I shall be very closely working with you was the wage-and-price-control issue that came before the Banking Committee, on which I sit. I was one of those that made up the majority that voted to end the wage-and-price-control measure to take that out of the hands of President Nixon because what we all saw happening was that wages were held down (they sure were) but we didn't see prices held down and we didn't see profits held down. Therefore this Congress has voted to end this power. We started that in our committee and that's the way it is going to be.

Federal Tax Reform Needed

"I would like to talk to you in a little bit of detail about one other major issue. I believe that we must have federal tax reform legislation to shift some of the burden of financing Social Security off of the backs of 58 million hardpressed, low- and middle-income workers. More than $27 billion were taken out of the paychecks of low- and middle-income workers last year to finance the Social Security system from the checks of workers making less than $13,200 a year. The figure taken out of payroll checks will rise to more than $39 billion this year. That amounts to $4 million less than all United States business, including the giant corporations, will pay in income tax this year.

"Five years ago an American worker paid $379; today he pays or she pays $772. That is a hundred percent increase in just five years.

"Both the man or woman making $13,200 and the man or woman making $50,000 a year pay the same amount in Social Security: $772. That amounts to 5.8% of the income of the man making $13,200; it is only 1.5% of the income of a person making $50,000 a year. I believe we have come to the point where we must put an end to this skyrocketing in payroll deductions for Social Security. As we find it necessary to raise benefits again, as we will because of inflation, we must again attempt to finance part of the Social Security system out of general government revenues rather than taking the pay from the American working man and working woman.

"If the government is going to contribute a share to Social Security by chipping in from corporate and estate and income-tax revenues, we must make sure that the burden falls less upon middle- and low-income workers. Instead, we must reform the tax laws in such a way that reform of Social Security payments will be a major factor in forcing the Congress to reform the whole tax structure. General tax revenues should gradually be used, I think, to offset future increases in the cost of Social Security until the government assumes one-third of the total burden. The one-third government share will just about offset the cost of benefits going to millions of people who did not contribute a full share before they retired.

"Additional necessary cost-of-living increases are scheduled for the near future—and we have to do this. I voted for every cost-of-living increase in benefits and I know that labor supported every one of those increases. They are absolutely essential for senior citizens on fixed incomes who are being squeezed by the relentless crush of rising prices for food, housing and other basic necessities of life.

"But the working man also suffers from inflation in these days of Richard Nixon. The cost-of-living has gone up 28% over the past five years and it is currently rising at an annual rate of 15%. The worker, as you well know, is disadvantaged first by the higher prices he pays and again by higher payroll deductions for Social Security. So that is something that I am going to be working very hard on—and I hope that you can join in that effort.

"The key to success in this and in many other battles we will be waging together relates directly to this year's election. So I urge you to do all you can to see that we strengthen our majority in the House and in the Senate of those who will take into account the needs of the working man and woman, the needs of the average American in so many vital issues that are before us. And in all of this and in the election I am counting on your support; and in working on these issues I count on your support in the United States Senate. And thanks right now for that.

"Good bye!"

Senator Cranston having completed his telephoned remarks to the convention, Secretary-Treasurer Henning then resumed the report of the Executive Council.

Governor

The Executive Council recommended:

Democratic:

Joseph L. Alioto

Edmund G. Brown, Jr.

Bob Moretti

Jerome R. Waldie

Republican: No Endorsement

Secretary-Treasurer Henning moved adoption of the Executive Council's recommendation and it was duly seconded.

Delegates Henry H. Harr (Painters No. 741, Martinez) and Jesse Bernard (Laborers No. 294, Fresno) spoke in opposition to the Executive Council's recommendation.

At this point, Delegate William Demers (Communications Workers No. 9576, Santa Barbara) called for a roll call vote. Chairman Gruhn then pointed out that the proper time to ask for a roll call vote would be when the vote on the motion to adopt the Executive Council's recommendation is ready to be cast. At that time it would be necessary for seventy-five delegates to rise and request a roll call vote.

Delegate George Evankovich (Laborers No. 261, San Francisco) then indicated that he too would be in favor of a roll call vote at the proper time.

Also speaking in opposition to the Executive Council's recommendation were the following delegates: John Cinquemani (Los Angeles Building and Construction Trades Council), Warren Greer (Marine and Shipbuilding Wkrs. No. 9, San Pedro), John F. Crowley (San Francisco Labor Council) and Dale Marr (Operating Engineers No. 3, San Francisco).

Speaking in support of the Executive Council's recommendation were the following delegates: Herman Leavitt (Bar-tenders No. 284, Los Angeles), Larry Sibelman (Teachers No. 1021, Los Angeles), Joe Belardi (Cooks No. 44, San Francisco), Raoul Teilhet (California Federation of Teachers, Burbank) and Robert Milling (AFSCME No. 1239, River-side).

The previous question was then moved by Delegate Alfred Whitehead (Fire Fighters, Los Angeles County No. 1014, Los Angeles). The motion was seconded and carried.

Delegate William Demers (Communica-tions Wkrs. No. 9576, Santa Barbara) called for a roll call vote.

Chairman Gruhn, however, ruled that Secretary-Treasurer Henning, who had made the original motion to adopt the Ex-ecutive Council's recommendation, would be allowed to give his closing remarks.

Delegate Gary Samson (Typographical No. 21, San Francisco) then rose to a point of order, asking why further debate should take place.

Chairman Gruhn again explained that Secretary-Treasurer Henning had the op-portunity under the rules, to make his closing remarks since it was he who made the motion.

Secretary-Treasurer Henning then spoke in support of the motion to adopt the Ex-ecutive Council's recommendation.

By way of further explanation, Chair-man Gruhn then commented:

"Delegates, I know that there are many new delegates to the convention and they want to get specifics on the ruling that I made in allowing the Secretary to close. I will read this. It is in the Rules and Order of Business that you adopted this morning.

"Item 8 reads in Subsection (b): 'No motion or resolution shall be finally acted upon until an opportunity to speak has been given the delegate making or intro-ducing same, if he so desires.' "

At this point, Delegate Joseph Mazzola (Plumbers No. 38, San Francisco) asked for a point of information.

Chairman Gruhn ruled him out of order since his point of information was actually a debate on the issue.

Delegate William Demers (Communica-tions Wkrs. No. 9576, Santa Barbara) then requested a roll call vote.

Chairman Gruhn declared that a roll call vote was in order since the required seventy-five delegates had requested it.

Before commencement of the actual voting, the delegates gave their unani-mous consent to the Chair to first permit the final report of the Committee on Cre-dentials.

Final Report of Committee on Credentials

Loretta Riley, Chairwoman

Chairman Gruhn then called upon Lor-etta Riley, chairwoman of the Committee on Credentials, for a final report.

Chairwoman Riley then read the addi-tions to and deletions from the Prelimi-nary Roll of Delegates. (See completed Roll of Delegates.)

She then moved that the final report of the committee be adopted. The motion was seconded and carried.

The members of the Teller Board were appointed by Chairman Gruhn as follows:

Loretta Riley, chairwoman, Bartenders & Culinary Workers No. 770, Santa Rosa.

Willard L. Sward, Los Angeles County COPE, Los Angeles.

Russell L. Crowell, Laundry & Dry Cleaning Wkrs. No. 3, Oakland.

Proxies

Chairman Gruhn then explained a ques-tion raised on the use of proxies during the voting procedure.

"I know the question is being asked So to expedite things I will read this section of the constitution to you—and it is very clear:

“No proxies shall be allowed, but on a roll call or per capita vote, one delegate upon prior written approval of all co-delegates may vote for the entire delegation.”

“In other words, if your Local has 2,000 votes and it is split up among five delegates, if those other four delegates want to give one delegate the authority to cast the 2,000 votes, they can do so. But they all have to agree to that in writing. It can't be split up. It will have to be submitted to the Sergeant-at-Arms when you cast your vote at the microphone so that it is authorized.”

Results of Roll Call Vote

Here followed a roll call vote on the motion to accept the Executive Council's recommendation for the office of Governor.

When all delegates wishing to vote had done so, Chairman Gruhn declared the voting completed and requested the Teller Board to tabulate the votes.

Loretta Riley, chairwoman of the Teller Board then announced the results as follows: 167,898 “Yes” and 109,658 “No”.

The report of the Teller Board was signed by the members and Chairman Gruhn declared that the motion to adopt the Executive Council's recommendation for the office of Governor had carried by the necessary 60% vote.

Endorsement Procedure

Prior to the reading of the Executive Council's recommendations for the offices of the U.S. Congress, State Senate and State Assembly, Chairman Gruhn explained the procedure to be followed:

"The procedure to be used to insure an orderly process and the determination of endorsements: The Secretary will read the list of the Executive Council's recommended endorsements, and should a question arise concerning any recommendation for any district, the delegate objecting should request recognition from the Chair and ask that the recommended endorsement in question be set aside to be taken up individually after the recommended endorsements are acted upon."

Chairman Gruhn then called upon Secretary-Treasurer Henning for the Executive Council's recommendations.

Secretary-Treasurer Henning stated:

Delegate Warren Greer (Marine and Shipbuilding Wkrs. No. 9, San Pedro) rose to protest the endorsement of certain congressmen because they had voted against the interests of the Shipyard Workers in regard to the Wyman amendment. However, he did not request that specific districts be set aside.

Chairman Gruhn explained that this was not in accordance with the agreed upon endorsement procedure and that Delegate Greer was out of order and should have asked that a district be set aside for debate when that district recommendation was announced by Secretary-Treasurer Henning.

By request of Delegate Ruth Afflack (United Professors of California, Oakland), Congressional District No. 34 was temporarily set aside.

It was moved and seconded and carried that with the exception of Congressional District No. 34, the recommendations of the Executive Council for the U.S. Congress be adopted.

District No. 34

Secretary-Treasurer Henning then moved that the Executive Council's recommendation for Congressional District No. 34 be adopted. The motion was seconded.

Delegate Ruth Afflack (United Professors of California, Oakland) spoke in opposition to the Executive Council's recommendation.

Speaking in support of the Executive Council's recommendation were Delegates William Demers (Communications Wkrs. No. 9576, Santa Barbara), Warren Greer (Marine and Shipbuilding Wkrs. No. 9, San Pedro), Sigmund Arywitz (Los Angeles County Federation of Labor, Los Angeles) and M. R. Callahan (Bartenders No. 686, Long Beach).

Delegate Al Harrison (Operating Engineers No. 12, Los Angeles) then moved the previous question. The motion was seconded and carried.

Recommendation Adopted

The motion to adopt the Executive Council's recommendation for Congressional District No. 34 was carried.

At this point, Secretary-Treasurer Henning submitted to the convention a statement of the Executive Council on Proposition 9.

Statement on Proposition 9

by the Executive Council
California Labor COPE

The Executive Council of the California Federation voted unanimously at its meeting of March 5-6, 1974, to oppose Proposition 9 on the June 4 ballot.

Our opposition was based on the following major objections:

Section 82039 includes within the definition of lobbyist any person whenever "a substantial or regular portion of the activities for which he receives consideration is for the purpose of influencing legislation or administrative action."

Section 82032 defines "influencing legislative or administrative action" as follows: "means promoting, supporting, influencing, modifying, opposing or delaying any legislative or administrative action by any means, including but not limited to the provision or use of information statistics studies or analyses."

Section 82003 defines "agency" as "any state agency or local government agency."

Section 82049 defines "state agency" as follows: "every state office, department, division, bureau, board and commission, and the Legislature, but does not include the courts or any agency in the judicial branch of the government."

Section 86202 prohibits a "lobbyist" from making a "contribution, or to act as an agent or intermediary in the making of any contribution or to arrange for the making of any contribution by himself or any other person."

The above definitions bring within the confining restrictions of the initiative any labor official seeking full benefits for his membership through contacts with the legislature or such state agencies as the labor commissioner's office, unemployment insurance office, Division of Industrial Safety, Division of Industrial Welfare, Division of Apprenticeship Standards, Department of Education.

In ruthless reply to our public position and opposition to Proposition 9 as an anti-labor initiative, one of the sponsors of the initiative, Peoples Lobby, Inc., has filed a harassing and malicious petition against labor in the Sacramento County Superior Court. It completely and falsely misrepresents the voluntary compliance of the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO, with respect to the registration and filing requirements of the existing state lobby law.

Our Federation from the enactment of the lobby statute in 1949 has taken the position that the law does not apply to union labor representatives.

However, in the spirit of full disclosure, there has been on a continuous basis a voluntary compliance by our Federation through complete disclosure of all expenditures relating to its representation before the Legislature.

At the beginning of each legislative session we have filed a legal disclaimer stating that the lobby law is not applicable to labor union representatives.

It must be noted that during all of twenty-five years since enactment of the lobby statute, our filings have been accepted as proper by the legislative regulatory body.

The petition of the Peoples Lobby is an attempted act of political intimidation, intended to silence the state AFL-CIO movement. The petition would disenfranchise the duly-elected Secretary-Treasurer and all representatives of our Federation. It directs the Legislature to file criminal charges against your present Secretary-Treasurer for following state-approved practices of long standing.

The petition baldly declares its punitive purpose by establishing its sponsorship of Proposition 9 as a basis for the court action.

The petition represents a shocking abuse of judicial process.

We therefore call upon our affiliates to implement fully the opposition to Proposition 9 expressed by the Executive Council of the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO, by resoundingly defeating this ill-disguised anti-labor measure.

Motion Carried

On Secretary-Treasurer Henning's motion, duly seconded, the statement of the Executive Council on Proposition 9 was adopted.

Assembly Districts 5, 6, 7, 30, 31 and 58 were set aside upon request.

Secretary-Treasurer Henning moved that with the exceptions of Assembly Districts 5, 6, 7, 30, 31 and 58, the Executive Council's recommendations for the Assembly District offices be adopted.

The motion was seconded and carried.

District No. 5

Secretary-Treasurer Henning then moved that the Executive Council's recommendation in Assembly District No. 5 be adopted.

The motion was seconded and carried.

District No. 6

Secretary-Treasurer Henning moved that the Executive Council's recommendation in Assembly District No. 6 be adopted. The motion was seconded.

Delegate Thomas Kenny (Sacramento Central Labor Council) spoke in opposition to the Executive Council's recommendation.

Secretary-Treasurer Henning and Delegate M. R. Callahan (Bartenders No. 686, Long Beach) spoke in support of the Executive Council's recommendation.

Recommendation Adopted

The motion to adopt the Executive Council's recommendation in Assembly District No. 6 was carried.

District No. 7

Secretary-Treasurer Henning moved that the Executive Council's recommendation in Assembly District No. 7 be adopted. The motion was seconded.

Recommendation Adopted

The motion to adopt the Executive Council's recommendation in Assembly District No. 7 was carried.

Delegate Kenny then spoke on a point of personal privilege. He asked the Chair that he be allowed to speak on Assembly District No. 5, but since that district had already been acted upon, Chairman Gruhn ruled the request out of order.

District No. 30

Secretary-Treasurer Henning next moved that the Executive Council's recommendation in Assembly District No. 30 be adopted. The motion was seconded.

Delegate Robert Perkins (Fresno County COPE, Fresno) spoke against the Executive Council's recommendation of Al Villa (D) in Assembly District No. 30, explaining that the Executive Council had acted on the basis of a misunderstanding between the Fresno County COPE and the Merced County COPE. He then asked for an "Open" recommendation in the Democratic primary.

Secretary-Treasurer Henning indicated he had no objection to Delegate Perkins' position.

Recommendation Lost

The motion to adopt the Executive Council's recommendation in Assembly District No. 30 was lost.

REPORT OF SECRETARY-TREASURER

To: The 1974 Pre-Primary Convention of the California Labor Council on Political Education:

GREETINGS:

The country continues in political crisis. The Nixon years have been years of White House corruption, executive deceit and sly intimidation. Only the voting public can change that. Only the voting public can return America to its noblest traditions.

California Labor COPE is pledged to liberal and honorable government. We want the kind of government that would have made Nixon impossible, the kind of government that can give our system new promise and hope despite the disclosures of the time.

Our role is essential. There can be no democratic change without labor. That is our mission. There is nothing new in this. Our State AFL-CIO has been at it for a long time.

There follows both a review of what has happened since our 1972 COPE Convention and a look at present needs.

Twenty-two of California's 43 Congressmen who were elected in November, 1972 were endorsed by COPE. Thirty-five were reelected and eight won seats on the California delegation for the first time.

In the California Legislature, one-half of the State Senate's 40 seats were at stake. Ten COPE-endorsed candidates won.

With the death of State Senator Tom Carrell and the election to Congress of Senator Burgener, the Senate began 1973 with a 19-19 partisan split. Not until the election of Senator John Stull, Senator Alan Robbins and finally Senator Ruben Ayala, did the Senate realize its full complement with a 21-19 majority for the Democrats.

All 80 of the State Assembly seats in 1972 were before the electorate. The results showed a strong counter-trend to the Nixon landslide as Democrats gained eight seats, giving them a 51-29 majority.

COPE endorsed 45 of the elected Assemblymen. Under the leadership of Speaker Moretti, the State Assembly has been most responsive to the needs of the working people of California.

Here is a rundown of COPE candidates who won congressional seats in the 1972 election:

SPECIAL ELECTIONS

Eight special elections have been held to fill vacancies in the State Legislature since the November, 1972 elections.

In February, 1973 Alan Robbins, a COPE-endorsed candidate from North Hollywood defeated his Republican opponent to fill the 22nd District Senate seat previously held by the veteran Senator Tom Carrell. Robbins' victory gave the Democrats a 20-19 edge in the State Senate.

On March 6, 1973, Assemblyman John Stull from San Diego beat all challengers to win election to the Senate to replace Senator Clair Burgener who won election to Congress the previous November. The 38th Senate District is Republican territory and with Senator Stull's win, the Senate returned to a 20-20 partisan split.

The death of Assemblyman Carley Porter brought a special election to the Compton area of Los Angeles County in May where Republican Robert McLennan defeated labor-backed Frank Vicencia.

One month later, two Republicans won special elections. Paul Bannai from Gardena defeated COPE-endorsed Tom Rupert to capture the 67th Assembly District seat left vacant by the death of Democrat Larry Townsend.

San Diego Supervisor William Craven, a COPE-endorsed candidate polled 63 percent of the vote to defeat his Democratic opponent and fill the seat left vacant in the 80th Assembly District by Senator Stull's recent election.

By July, former Assembly Speaker Bob Monagan resigned his 12th District Assembly seat to join the Nixon Administration and COPE endorsed Carmen Perino to fill his seat. But Republican Doug Carter won the seat which represents much of the upper San Joaquin Valley area.

In September Democrat Bill Lockyer won election to the Alameda County Assembly seat vacated by the accidental death of the popular Robert Crown. COPE-endorsed Lockyer's victory came on the heels of your Secretary-Treasurer's call for the impeachment of President Nixon because of the Watergate scandal.

Finally, in January, 1974, a critical special election was held in San Bernardino County's 20th Senatorial District after Senator Coombs resigned to accept a Nixon appointment. In a key race where Watergate and big money power politics were the issues, Ruben Ayala defeated a well-financed challenge by Republican Assemblyman Jerry Lewis. Ayala, with strong support from COPE, joined the State Senate to once again give that body a 21-19 Democratic majority.

IMPACT OF NIXON POLICIES

With only 55 percent of the nation's potential electorate casting ballots in November, 1972, President Nixon claimed to have a mandate from the voters and began implementing his policies based on the premise that he did indeed represent the silent majority.

What President Nixon succeeded in doing to the nation since his reelection has had a profound impact on the economy of our country and state.

Between December, 1972 and December, 1973, the Consumer Price Index climbed 8.8 percent. The Bureau of Labor Statistics has attributed about a third of this rise in prices to higher costs for gasoline, fuel oil, natural gas, electricity, and coal. Higher prices for restaurant meals, food purchases and health care also contributed significantly to the rise.

The Nixon Administration's entire economic stabilization program has failed to curb inflation so badly that the net result has been uncertainty and further decline in the public's confidence in the government's ability to deal with economic problems.

We have witnessed housing starts—hit hard by high interest rates and inflation—fall sharply after the early months of 1973. By December, they were down 44 percent from January and February, 1973, and still falling.

Our members are suffering from a loss of purchasing power as the average worker's weekly take-home pay has been declining since October, 1972. By December, it was down 3.8 percent from the level reached 14 months before.

The effect of Nixon's policies has caused the number of employees on non-farm payrolls to drop almost 260,000 in January, 1974.

The number of unemployed workers nationally shot up 630,000 between October, 1973 and January, 1974 from 4.1 million or 4.6 percent of the labor force to 4.7 million or 5.2 percent.

Finally, the worker and his family are now being asked to reduce their fuel consumption by 15 percent, turn down their thermostats to 65 degrees and are forced to wait for hours in long lines to purchase enough gasoline to get to their jobs because of the energy crisis.

The energy shortage is real. The development of an energy policy based on foreign imports has made the U.S. extremely vulnerable to international power struggles. The charge of "manipulation" of this crisis to profit the oil giants has been heard frequently. During the 12 months between December, 1972 and December, 1973 retail prices of fuel oil rose 46.8 percent and gasoline prices rose 19.7 percent.

Four major oil companies reported after-tax profits in 1973 increased over 1972 between 45.4 percent and 59.3 percent.

Set against the energy crisis, inflation, and increasing unemployment, which are wreaking havoc on our national economy is the great tragedy of Watergate and its subsequent cover-up which has offended the morality of every American citizen.

The country is in shock from the blatant refusal of the President to cooperate with the investigators and each day we learn of new indictments against former officers of the Nixon Administration and further indications of corruption.

The fact that the nation is calling for the impeachment of Nixon, and that Agnew has resigned as Vice President has awakened the apathetic voter to a new level of consciousness. Special elections around the nation are showing a trend toward honesty in government and a rejection of those tainted by association with the President or his national party.

On the national, state and local levels, legislators are drafting campaign reform legislation to halt the kind of activity that produced the "enemies list," the "ITT deal," and the now infamous "Plumbers."

In response to the Nixon Administration's mismanagement of the economy, his personal staff's inappropriate conduct in the 1972 election and the President's own failure to cooperate fully with the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives, your Secretary-Treasurer has initiated a call for the President's immediate impeachment and has joined with the AFL-CIO in a national call to elect a veto-proof Congress.

Your Secretary-Treasurer has also urged Congress to assert its leadership during a period where the credibility of the President is at an all time low.

The California AFL-CIO has had printed for distribution 500,000 "Why Richard M. Nixon Must be Impeached Now" pamphlets which are being circulated among affiliates.

The California AFL-CIO also designed, published and distributed more than 5,000 copies of a 17-inch x 27-inch red, white and blue poster reading, "For the Good of America, IMPEACH NIXON NOW." In addition, the California AFL-CIO News has carried extensive articles informing all affiliates of the reasons for calling for this action.

Telegrams and letters have been sent to Congressmen insisting on their commitment to flush to the surface the truth about the Nixon Administration and provide an opportunity for a fair and just judicial process to indict or vindicate the President in the impeachment process.

Concurrently, the call for a veto-proof Congress is well underway. Congress must have the necessary votes to override such presidential vetoes as those that stopped the $2.20 minimum wage, and the important energy act which would have curtailed the escalating profit-taking by major oil companies during the energy crisis.

California has suffered badly from the fallout from the national political scene and the disastrous policies pursued by the Nixon administration that have tripled the nation's rate of inflation, allowed interest rates to jump to their highest levels in 100 years and let corporate profits soar to totally unjustifiable levels while holding workers' wages so sharply in check that the workers' real purchasing power has declined nearly 4 percent.

The deepening recession induced by Richard Nixon's consistently inept "game plans" is reflected in the latest jobless figures released by the State Employment Development Department just last week:

715,000 Californians unemployed and a seasonably adjusted statewide jobless rate of 7.4 percent!

The uncertainties born of the failures of Nixon's policies and the lack of any national leadership was also mirrored in a report carried in the Wall Street Journal late last year (12/14/73) which stated:

"The long-anticipated housing slump has turned into a full-fledged recession that could become one of the worst ever for the industry."

The report also observed that:

"High interest rates and uncertainty about the economy have sent home sales plunging in recent months. As a result, housing starts have been declining faster and more severely than analysts expected, and a sharp drop in building permits indicates that further declines are ahead."

Bear in mind that the above report was written before the energy crisis had reached the point of four-block-long lines of cars at gas stations throughout the state, a development that undoubtedly caused even sharper cutbacks or delays in both commercial and residential construction planning.

In fact, research data indicates that total housing starts in 1974 are expected to drop as low as 1.5 million compared with a record 2.38 million in 1972 and an expected total of 2.05 million in 1973.

This situation would be even worse today in California if Proposition 1, the Tax Initiative pushed by Governor Reagan in a special statewide election last year, had not been defeated at the polls last November after the California AFL-CIO mounted a vigorous drive against it.

The California AFL-CIO's objections to Proposition 1 were that it would have hamstringed the state's ability to meet its citizens' needs in such vital areas as health, housing, and education and would have forced a greater reliance on consumer taxes while freezing existing state tax loopholes into the California Constitution.

This would have made it practically impossible to bring about a greater reliance on the state income tax, which is based on the ability to pay principle and which presently accounts for less than one-third of the state's revenues.

In the course of the drive to alert the state's voters to the perils of Proposition 9, the California AFL-CIO produced and distributed 1.5 million pamphlets, fact sheets and posters and worked closely with a broad coalition of concerned civic organizations.

Among other things, the measure would have permitted a minority of just one-third plus one of the state's legislators in either house of the legislature to bar any reform in the state's income tax structure to require the rich to pay a fairer share of the costs of government.

In the Nov. 6, 1973 election, the measure was defeated by a vote of 2,284,705 "No" (54 percent) to 1,945,123 "Yes" (46 percent), a margin of 339,582 votes.

Officials of central labor and craft councils as well as local union officers and members throughout the state played a major and obviously effective role in that difficult but successful uphill battle.

THE CHALLENGE OF 1974

California voters are faced this year with the task of electing honest, competent, public spirited men and women to fill 155 key state and federal legislative and administrative posts. Delegates to the Pre-Primary Election Convention of California Labor COPE will act on endorsements for the following seats:

Governor
U.S. Senator
Lt. Governor
Attorney General
Controller
Secretary of State
Treasurer
State Superintendent of Public Instruction
43 Congressional seats
20 State Senate seats
80 State Assembly seats
4 seats on the State Board of Equalization

They will also have nine ballot propositions before them on the June 4, 1974 primary ballot.

The role of State COPE in cooperation with Local COPEs this election year will include the following:

- 1—Identification and endorsement of candidates friendly to organized labor.
- 2—Organization of comprehensive voter education and registration drives.
- 3—Distribution of literature about COPE-endorsed candidates.
- 4—Distribution of COPE-endorsed slate cards to AFL-CIO families throughout the state.
- 5—Continual solicitation of contributions to finance COPE activities.
- 6—Preparation of absentee voting procedures to help union members cast their ballots if their work or vacation plans make it inconvenient for them to cast ballots in their regular precincts on election day.
- 7—Development of effective get-out-the-vote efforts in both the primary and general elections to assure that the full weight of California's 1.6 million AFL-CIO union members and their families is brought to bear in the fight to win national health security, real tax reforms and a host of other measures vital to the welfare of U.S. workers.

Toward this end, the California AFL-CIO has been working during the past two years to encourage the participation of women, blacks, chicanos and youth in the state's political process.

Last year, the California AFL-CIO created a Special Committee on Union Women in the Work Force and also sponsored a well attended Conference on Women.

We have also continued to aid the development of California Chapters of the A. Philip Randolph Institute throughout the state to encourage voter registration and education in the black community, both among union members and workers outside the labor movement.

California Labor COPE has had full time field representatives working with the black and brown communities since 1970.

In terms of the Spanish-speaking community, the California AFL-CIO was instrumental in the creation of the Labor Council for Latin American Advancement, an organization similar in structure and aims to the A. Philip Randolph Institute. The LCLAA is currently developing local community chapters throughout the state which will develop programs to maximize voter registration and the more effective involvement of our Spanish speaking brothers and sisters in the state's political life. President of the LCLAA nationally is Ray Mendoza, a vice president of California Labor COPE and an international representative of the Laborers' International Union.

In terms of youth, the State AFL-CIO headquarters in San Francisco also houses the headquarters for the Western states operations of Frontlash, an AFL-CIO funded program geared to stimulating youth to get involved in effective political action. Now a veteran of more than four years of continuous, year-round operations, Frontlash has repeatedly proved its effectiveness in voter education, registration and get-out-the-vote drives in many special as well as primary and general election campaigns.

KEY ELECTION LAW CHANGES

The enactment of two major laws affecting political activity in California last year—AB 703, the campaign contributions law; and SB 716, a new conflict of interest law—led the California AFL-CIO to urge all trade union officials involved in the financing of political campaigns to attend one of a series of four seminars conducted last month by the Secretary of State's office and the State Attorney General's office in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Both of these laws have been described as "extremely complex and detailed" and some portions of the disclosure law are presently involved in litigation. Without attempting any analysis of these measures in this report, it is important that all union officials involved in campaign financing bear the existence of these new laws closely in mind in the forthcoming campaigns and check with California Labor COPE on any questions that may arise.

AB 703 amends sections of the Government Code relating to campaign reporting and establishes procedures and regulations for the "Reporting and Publication of Campaign Contributions and Expenditures." It requires substantial record-keeping and reporting not heretofore required.

SB 716 relates to specified financial disclosures now required of specified public officers and candidates for public office and requires public officials to disclose each year certain aspects of their investments, property and sources of income.

The law is being enforced by the Secretary of State through the Registrar of Voters in each county. All affiliates are urged to acquaint themselves with the provisions of these laws since they do impose rigid and specific reporting requirements.

SERVICES TO LOCAL COPEs

To help local and district COPEs keep up with changes in the election code and fluctuations in voter registrations in the various congressional, state senate and assembly districts in which they are involved, California Labor COPE made a point of acquiring state publications such as the various reports on election results, voter registration and election calendars and distributing them to COPE jurisdictions throughout the state.

It has, of course, also continued to service COPE requests for research and information, and as in the past, maintained a library of films available to COPE units throughout the state.

Materials that have been distributed which will be of help include:

"1972 Report on the California Legislature." This pamphlet, published by the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO, provides an important record of how state legislators voted on key labor issues.

"Force for Progress 1973" also published by the California Labor Federation, AFL-CIO, offers a concise report on activities which led to the Governor's signing of $117,000,000 a year in additional benefits to be paid to nearly a million jobless, injured or ill workers. It also lists how state legislators voted on key bills.

"Why Richard M. Nixon Must Be Impeached—Now" is a reprint of a pamphlet prepared by the AFL-CIO and available to affiliates who wish to inform their members of the Nixon Administration.

"COPE—Good Work for Democracy," is a 16-millimeter color film that dramatically answers the question "What is COPE?" in about 16 minutes, and,

"Nixon: Broken Promises," is a 16-millimeter color film that contrasts the campaign promises made by Nixon in 1968 with his actual performance on the job in terms of curbing inflation without increasing unemployment and related issues.

FEDERAL AND STATE ISSUES GUIDES

The "Issues Guides" prepared by California Labor COPE to assist in the interviewing of candidates for congressional and state legislative posts were mailed to all County, District and Area COPEs last month.

The "Federal Issues Guide" for congressional candidates reviews 20 areas of concern to California workers and includes questions on the energy crisis, impeachment, tax reform, national health insurance, impoundments, unemployment benefits, workmen's compensation, situs picketing, maritime policy, foreign trade, housing, consumer protections, civil rights and labor-management relations.

The "State Issues Guide" provides background material for interviewing candidates for the State Senate and Assembly and includes questions on Proposition 9, the environment, the energy crisis, state labor law, disability insurance, taxes, civil rights, farm labor, housing, Medi-Cal, education, health care, water resources, and parallel apprenticeship programs.

The guides were designed to provide some insight to each candidate's views on social and economic policy matters that directly affect the health and welfare of California workers.

Copies of these materials in limited quantity are available to all local COPEs and central bodies from California Labor

COPE at 995 Market Street, 3rd floor,
San Francisco, California 94103.

AREA COPE PARLEY SET FOR APRIL 10

The 1974 Area Conference of the National AFL-CIO's Committee on Political Education for AFL-CIO affiliates in California and Nevada will be held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in San Francisco on April 10.

Theme of the conference, the last of 11 held throughout the nation, will be the election of a veto-proof Congress.

The conferences will be built around the need to register our members, educate them on the issues and their candidates' records, the collection of COPE dollars and getting out the vote—all geared toward election of enough new, friendly members of Congress to override Nixon Administration vetoes.

CONCLUSION

Political conservatism has nothing to offer America. Nothing but weakening of the liberal spirit and a nation set adrift in a sea of compromise and corruption.

Washington has been defiled by a Nixon administration that has simply carried political conservatism to its logical conclusion. Mr. Nixon is not an inherently evil man. He only did what a political conservative would do. He bent the agencies of government to serve the interests of corporate America.

It has been done before and will be done again whenever the enemies of liberalism and labor are in control of the country. The only difference between the present situation and the past is that Mr. Nixon was unusually flagrant and was caught in several acts.

The duty of California Labor COPE is to achieve the election of liberals at every level of state and federal government.

We are on the way and 1974 must be for us a year of success and progress. The restoration of faith in government must begin with the political vitality of union labor. Corporate America has done enough damage.

Fraternally,
JOHN F. HENNING
Executive Secretary-Treasurer
