- SACRAMENTO PICKET BAN DENIED -

San Francisco. Attorneys for the California State Federation of Labor have won another victory against an employer who sought to bar legal picketing of his establishment by members of the AFL Beauticians Union of Sacramento, Secretary Edward D. Vandeleur announced.

The employer in question, C. W. Mount, operating Andre's Beauty Salon in Sacramento, had signed an agreement with the Beauticians Union which he promptly proceeded to violate. Instead of paying the union scale, Mount hired apprentices at $14.00 per week and less, worked them unusually long hours without overtime, and discharged them after a week's work.

These practices brought a picket line from the union, which Mount met by applying for an injunction, restraining the Beauticians Union from picketing. He acknowledged his violation of the union contract, in court, but charged that the union was seeking to violate the Cartwright Act, by fixing prices.

Superior Court Judge Malcolm C. Glenn, of Sacramento, denied him the injunction and ruled"that the Beauticians had a right to picket his establishment inviting the attention of the public to his unfair labor practices."

San Francisco. Edward D. Vandeleur, Secretary of the California State Federation of Labor, today asked all unions and Central Labor bodies to check the stand of candidates on a State Housing Bill before making endorsements for the Assembly and State Senate.

"Organized labor is vitally interested in the passage of such legislation," Vandeleur declared, "because it will aid in the elimination of rural slums and provide work for many of our building trades unionists. "It came up in the last session of the Legislature, but its passage was blocked by the rent-collecting interests. It will come up again in the next session, and labor should endorse only standidates who are committed to vote for its adoption."
